Internal Revenue Supervisors Appointed—Secretary Welles' Report Completed—Currency Interest Receiving Bonds—Constitutional Amendment—Further Reduction in the Navy—Additional Section of the Pacific Railroad Accepted—Gen. Canby Departs for Texas—Col. F. J. Crilly Relieved by Gen. D. H. Rucker.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, November 11, 1868.

John J. Noah has been appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Tennessee, and Judge T. H. Saffold, of Savannah, for Supervisor of Georgia, Alabama and Florida. Both of these are Republicans.

Secretary Wells has finished his report. It is brief, and is the first completed.

It is said that a bond will be recommended strongly at the next meeting of Congress, which will bear a small currency interest, and may be turned into greenbacks at the holder's option. This will prevent any further locking-up of greenbacks.

Judge Kelly, of Philadelphia, will introduce a constitutional amendment at the next session of Congress, establishing equal suffrage in all of the States.

Mr. Welles has concluded to still further reduce our navy.

Mr. McPherson has settled up the estate of Thaddeus Stevens, and finds that about one hundred thousand dollars will remain after the payment of his debts.

WASHINGTON, D. C. November 11.—The following Internal Revenue appointments were made to-day, Storekeepers, George Barnes Ninth District Ky., G. C. West, Seventh District, Ky., C. S. Mansfrell, — District Montana, Jas. A. Mann, Sixth District Mo., E. J. Barton Ninth District Ky. Jos. C. Carr, Sixth District Illinois. Guagers—Jas. Kelly, Fifteenth District Ohio, John J. McLean, Twelfth District Ills., Leonard Marten, First Mo., Geo. M. Hanes, Dakota. Jas. P. Bailey has been appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the Teritories of Washington, Montona, Idaho and State of Oregon.

The President has accepted an additional twenty mile section of the Central Pacific Railroad, commencing at the 370th mile and ending at the termination of the 390th mile, east of Initial Point at Sacramento City, California.

Major General Canby will leave for his command in the Department of Texas to-morrow.

Upon the recommendation of the Quartermaster General, Brevet Major General D. H. Bucker, Assistant Quartermaster General, has been ordered to relieve Brevet Colonel F. J. Crilly, Assistant Quartermaster, of all money and property in his possession, and from further duty at the Philadelphia depot.

Colonel Crilly has been ordered to report to General Sheridan.

ST. LOUIS.

Legislature Republican—Grant's Majority—Court House Burned—Mining Season Closed—Snow at St. Paul—Banner Congressional District—Thanksgiving Day.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, November 11.—The Republican says: One hundred and one counties in this State give McClurg, Radical, for Governor, a majority of 11,619, and figures the Lower House of the Legislature at eighty Radicals to fifty-one Democrats, with seven doubtful. In the Senate it says there will be twenty-five Radicals and nine Democrats.

The Democrat says one hundred and three counties give Grant a majority of 21,817, McClurg 16,343, and thinks that the counties to hear from will give a small Democratic majority. It also claims ninety-two members in the Lower House of the Legislature, without counting some uncertain counties.

The Court House at Vienna, the county seat of Marion county, was burned on the night of the 6th instant, together with all the county records and election returns.

A Denver dispatch says that about three hundred Indians left Maxwell ranche, last week, on an expedition against hostile Indians.

Miners from Montana report the mining season about closed. The weather in the mountains is cold, with but little snow however.

About six inches of snow has fallen at St. Paul since Sunday night.

The Second Congressional district of Illinois is claimed as the banner district of the United States, it having given Gov. Farnsworth 14,480 majority.

The official returns of fifty-seven counties in Illinois show an increase of the popular vote on Congressmen at large, in two years, of 44,000.

Governor Fletcher has appointed the 26th instant as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

The Leavenworth Conservative says that Grant's majority in Kansas will be 18,000, and thinks it may reach 20,000.

CUBA.

Change of Governments—The Insurrection Still in Progress—Money and War Material from New York.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 11.—The Herald's Havanna special says: The Provisional Government of Spain has conferred on Count Balmazeda the full power to pardon all persons engaged in the present insurrection, except the leaders.

The District Governments of the Island have been changed.

The rebels are in possession of Remate, Matea, and some other towns in the jurisdiction of Puerto Principe. Remate is on the southern slope of the Island, about forty miles south-west of Puerto Principe, and about ten miles inland.

There is much fighting in the whole neighborhood. The Government admits this in a published communication.

Nothing has been recently heard from Col. Lave.

A rebel commissioner claims that they have plenty of money in New York, as well as war material.

Young Lady Shoots Herself.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TROY, N. Y., November 11.—Miss Mary E. Magee, daughter of Captain Magee, of this city, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart with a revolver. Temporary insanity was the cause of the rash act. She was twenty years old.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 11, 1868.

REPORT CONTRADICTED.

The report that Mr. Griswold will decline to run for United States Senator is denied by his friends.

A CANARD.

The report that an expedition is fitting out here to capture Cuba is unfounded.

GEN. M'CLELLAN'S NEW HOME.

General McClellan is about to take up his residence permanently at Hoboken.

DEATH OF W. L. JAMIESON.

W. L. Jamieson, actor, son of the late George Jamieson, died on Monday, aged 33 years.

THREE STRIKES IN PROGRESS.

There are three strikes now in progress in this city, viz: the cigar makers, shoemakers and pianoforte makers.

RENTS DECLINING.

Rents are declining here slightly. There are quite a number of houses to let at reasonable rates, for the first time in five years.

MONEY MARKET—EVERYBODY IN THE DARK.

No change is observable in the money market. Nobody seems to know what Mr. McCulloch will do.

ARREST OF NOAH L. CHILDS.

Noah L. Childs was arrested on Tuesday and held by Commissioner Osborn for trial, on a charge of issuing fraudulent naturalization papers.

CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A New England Christian Temperance Convention, composed of ministers and church members of all denominations, will be held in Boston the week after Thanksgiving.

TROUBLE "AFTER DARK."

Messrs. Jarett and Palmer, of Niblo's Garden, served an injunction to-day upon the Manager of the Bowery Theatre, restraining him from performing the play "After Dark," which the proprietors o Niblo's Garden purchased from the author.

FALSE PRETENCE ON A LARGE SCALE.

The members of the firm of S. C. Kenyon & Co., boot and shoe dealers, of Hartford, Connecticut, are under arrest, charged with obtaining, under false pretences, of parties in Boston and West Brookfield, goods to the amount of $50,000 or $40,000, and secreting the same.

IMPORTANT MOTION TO BE MADE.

Notice was given to-day in the United States Circuit Court that a motion would be made on Saturday morning in the matter of the Revenue fraud investigations now proceeding in this city by authority of Congress. The nature of the motion will not be disclosed till that time; but the counsel said it would be an important one.

SUSPECTED COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

Gustavus Schieval and Caleb Schwitzer were arrested in Hoboken, New Jersey, on suspicion of being counterfeiters. On searching them a large amount of counterfeit currency was found in their possession. Several counterfeit 5s of the St. Nicholas National Bank of New York were also found in their possession. The prisoners were conveyed to Newark and given into the custody of the U. S. Marshall.

THE TRIBUNE DISAVOWS BUTLER'S CARD.

The Tribune this morning formally disavows the Butler card, abusive of Mr. J. W. Simonton, published on the 29th of October, and says: "Mr. Simonton has been known to us for years as a citizen held in honorable esteem, one against whom such gross imputations as those of Mr. Butler are essentially incrediitable. But Butler's attack was so wanton, so causeless, and his spirit so malevolent, that his charges seemed to us calculated to injure no one but himself."

SUPPOSED ROBBER ARRESTED.

James Griffin alias Stephens alias Williams, alleged to have been connected with the Royal Insurance Company robbery, on Wall street, some time since, was arrested this forenoon. A considerable quantity of scrip of the Long Island Railroad Company and a large package of cancelled checks, signed by John A. Cross, were found in his possession. The prisoner was handed over to Capt. Jourdan, to give that officer an opportunity to find an owner of the scrip and to work up the case.

RETRENCHMENT COMMITTEE AT WORK.

The Sub-Committee of the Congressional Joint Committee on Retrenchment, comprising Messrs. Van Wycke, Jincks, Benton and Halsey, held a session to-day. Among other things, they inquired into the reasons why the indictments against certain individuals, the Kentucky Bourbon Company and others, for violation of the revenue laws, were not tried; and as to the reasons for the great delay that has occurred since the cases were first put on the calendar. United States District Attorney Courtney was sworn and testified although he was ready to proceed with the trial, the delay now occasioned was by orders received by him from Washington. The Committee are endeavoring to ascertain why this interference from Washington is made to still further postpone the trial of these cases, as it is claimed the individuals thus receiving the Executive clemency have made themselves useful in making charges against certain officials obnoxious to the President, and that they stand ready to perform similar services in the future. The investigation will be resumed to-morrow.

PHILADELPHIA.

Fenian Convention—Man Robbed and Killed—Aid for the Swiss Sufferers—Death of G. W. Ford—Man Jumps from a Train and is Run Over.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, November 11.—At a meeting of Fenians last night arrangements were perfected to give a grand reception to the convention on the twenty fourth instant. Delegates from Ireland, England, Scotland, France, Canada, Australia, and all the United States will be present. Gen. O'Neill will preside.

George W. Ford, a well known politician, died here last evening.

A man named Scattergood was knocked down and robbed on Sunday night in the lower part of the city by a ruffian named Conover, who has been arrested. Scattergood died to-day of his injuries.

About fifteen hundred dollars is the amount raised in this city in aid of the Swiss sufferers.

Paul Noblit, while attempting to jump from a moving train, north of this city, yesterday afternoon, was run over and killed.

Judge Cadwalader has summarily dismissed the Lancashire Lass case.

"Knights of Pythias" and the "Conclaves."

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILMINGTON, Del., November 11.—The Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias adjourned its annual session last evening, to meet in Richmond on the second Tuesday in March. The most important action taken was the refusal to recognize a branch of the order styled "Conclaves."

Queen's Proclamation Dissolving Parliament—Remainder of the Crew of the James Patton Rescued—Spanish Republic Gaining Ground—Convention to Mitigate the Horrors of War in Session—Amendment to the Treaty of Paris—Further About English-American Affairs—Dissatisfaction Among Englishmen.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, November 11.—The Queen's proclamation dissolving Parliament was promulgated to-day. The writs for elections have been issued. They appoint the 10th day of December for the meeting of the new Parliament.

NEW YORK, November 11.—The Herald's London special says: Minister Reverdy Johnson's statement that the difficulties between England and the United States, in regard to the Alabama claims are ended, is regarded as too strong, and is entirely unwarranted. The highest authorities interested say nothing reliable has been settled, no arbitrator has been selected, and Minister Johnson and Lord Stanley have agreed only that both Governments shall choose arbitrators to decide the extent of England's liabilities for the depredations of the Alabama and her right to recognize the confederates as belligerents. In the event of the liability question being decided adverse to the American views all claims drop, and if otherwise each government appoints two commissioners, who jointly choose a fifth, to act as President. The governments jointly appoint a Secretary, each paying half his salary. The duties of the commission shall be to examine separately each claim of the two countries.

At Minister Johnson's own suggestion, the Commission is to meet in London, because, as he says, most of the evidence, documentary and verbal, will be found here.

The statement, of the Times, that it has been agreed that the arbitrator be an European King, by which it means more definitely King William of Prussia, and that the United States have decided not to press the question of the right of England to recognize the rebellion, are manifestly incorrect. I am authorized to state that the governments will jointly select the arbitrator, and the question of recognition will form the principal subject of the arbitration. The character of these negotiations has caused considerable dissatisfaction among influential citizens, representing those Englishmen friendly to the loyal Americans during the war. On the one hand, it is said that the Tories have been using Minister Johnson for political purposes, and on the other that the rebels have been using the Tories for their own purposes.

GERMANY.

BREMEN, November 11.—Captain Percy and remaider of the crew, of the ship J. F. Patten, previously reported ashore near the mouth of the Weser, were taken from the wreck by the life boat, and landed in safety. The vessel will probably be a total loss.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 11.—The International Military Commission, called by Emperor Alexander to draw up a convention for the mitigation of the horrors of war, has commenced its sessions in this city, under the Presidency of the Russian Minister of War.

SPAIN.

MADRID, November 11.—The party in favor of a Republic is gaining ground. Gen. Pierrad has united with Don Escalante to push forward the Republican cause. The Democrats express some dissatisfaction at this coalition.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, November 11.—The Vienna Presse says the negotiations are now afoot for the purpose of amending the treaty of Paris so as to make the sovereignty of the Sublime Porte over the Danubian Principalities less illusory.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

QUEENSTOWN, November 11.—The steamers City of Boston and Tripoli, from New York, arrived to-day.

A Rough Sentenced—He Abuses the Recorder.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DETROIT, Mich., November 11.—James Jackson, a St. Louis rough, was to-day sentenced by Recorder Swift to the State prison for fifteen years for the attempted murder of a policeman. On hearing the sentence Jackson became very indignant and abusive to the Judge, and expressed an anxious desire to shoot the policeman.

Municipal Election—Republican Candidate Elected.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 11.—The result of the municipal election was announced this evening, amid great excitement. Nearly ten thousand votes were cast, and Pillsbury, Republican, was elected over Lesesne, the Citizens' candidate, by a majority of seventeen. The Citizens' party talk of contesting the election.

TENNESSEE.

Delegates to the Cattle Plague Commission—Contraband Muskets—All Quiet at Mason's Depot.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, November 11.—The House to-day adopted the Senate resolution providing for the appointment of delegates to the Cattle Plague Convention, which meets at Springfield, Ill., and appointed Messrs. McKinley and Allen. The Senate was not in session.

MEMPHIS, November 11.—Jas. Stokes and John Cunningham went to the house of Owen Reilly, near the corner of Winchester and Main streets, this morning and attempted to whip Mrs. Reilly for remarks made about Stokes' mother. Reilly resisted, when a fight ensued, during which he was shot in the back and groin. He is probably mortally wounded. Stokes and Cunningham were arrested and committed.

Fifteen boxes of new muskets arrived here yesterday morning from St. Louis, consigned to L. Helman, who refused to receive them, and denied knowing anything about them. They were stored, and will be sold to pay charges.

The troops sent to Mason's Depot last night returned this morning, and report all quiet there, and although a large body of negroes were there, no riotous proceedings had occurred.

NEW ORLEANS.

A Cuban Fillibustering Expedition—Headquarters in New Orleans—A Portion of the Force Sailed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, November 11.—This evening's Times has an article giving the following rumors and reports concerning the Cuban expedition spoken of in the New York World yesterday. It says there is an organization in this city and country which has been in correspondence with the Cuban insurrectionary leaders for some time. The real headquarters of the movement are in this city, and the leader is not, as stated, Gen. Henningsen. It says the statement that three thousand men will leave this city in fifteen days will probably turn out to be true; that a number of the parties engaged in this expedition have already left this city with passports for Cuba, and that on Tuesday evening two meetings were held in this city by those engaged in the movement.

CANADA.

Close of Lord Monck's Administration—Judicial Appointments—Complimentary Address.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—The last meeting of the Privy Council under Lord Monck's administration will be held at Quebec on Friday. All the members of the Government left here to-day to be present.

Chief Justice Richards has been appointed Chief Justice of the Courts of the Queen's bench of Ontario, and Mr. Justice Hogarty Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—A deputation from the Legislature of Ontario, appointed to present an address to his excellency, Lord Monck, on his departure for England, left for Quebec this morning.

ALABAMA.

The Weather and Crops—Looking After the Ku-Klux-Klan—Vote of the State.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 11.—The weather for the past week or two has been very fine for crop gathering. The corn yield is large, and cotton is turning out somewhat better than was anticipated.

The Legislature is doing nothing of general importance. Committees have been appointed by both Houses to travel over the State to investigate the alleged Ku-Klux outrages.

The vote in the State is still uncertain. Forty-six counties give Grant 66,826 and Seymour 59,464, with eighteen counties to hear from. The Republicans claim the State by 20,000.

Episcopal Church Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

UTICA, N. Y., November 11.—The primary convention of the Episcopal Church assembled at ten o'clock this morning in Grace Church, Rev. Dr. Van Densen, Rector. After the preliminary religious exercises, Bishop Cox delivered an able sermon. At the afternoon session the special order for three o'clock was the choice of a Bishop for the new diocese. The leading candidates for the position were Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, Rev. Dr. Van Densen, of Utica, and Rev. Leeds, of Baltimore. After five ballots, the final choice of the convention was Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, of Brooklyn. This evening the members of the convention are having a grand reception at the Butterfield House.

Judicial Appointment—Damage to Erie Canal—The Cole-Hiscock Trial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, Nov. 11.—The Governor has appointed Geo. D. Lamont, of Lockport, Justice of the Supreme Court for the Eighth Judicial District, in place of J. H. Davis, resigned.

One hundred feet of the tow-path of the Erie Canal has gone out on the four mile level, seven miles west of Schenectady. It will take four days to repair it. The water in the adjacent river, the Mohawk, is very high and still rising. All the surrounding flats are inundated.

The Cole Hiscock trial will not commence until to-morrow. Considerable time will be occupied in procuring a jury.

Institution of Industrial Science Dedicated.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WORCESTER, Mass., November 11.—The Worcester County Free Institute of Industrial Science was dedicated to-day with appropriate services. It is designed to furnish practical training in Mechanical Science. The institution starts with an endowment of three hundred thousand dollars and Prof. C. O. Thompson as President.

Tannery Burned—Population of Chicago.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Bristol & Engle's tannery, on Archer avenue, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss about $40,000; insurance $20,000.

The school census, just completed, makes the population of Chicago 250,254, an increase since April last of 9,671.

Brewery Destroyed.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ROCHESTER, N. Y., November 11.—The greater portion of the brewery of Frederick Miller situated on Lake avenue, this city, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss is $16,000; insured for $8,000.

Chicago Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, November 11—Evening.—Wheat to-night sold sparingly at $1,08¼ for No. 2. Nothing doing in Corn. Oats held firmly at 50c, with buyers at 49½c.

A Prodigious Prospect.

An alarmist article in the London Spectator, on the subject of emigration, has attracted some attention, and as it has a peculiar interest for us we give an extract:

Suppose it true, as many men of mark in science believe, that the next great step may be in sea-going steamers, that international communication may be accelerated as internal communication has been, that we may yet see New York brought within two days' journey of Liverpool. The great probability is that in ten years every social condition now existing in Europe would have ceased to exist, that the millions who toil for others and on whose toil modern society is built, would choose to toil for themselves, would precipitate themselves into a rush, to which all the movements of mankind have been trifles, upon the new world. Suppose the population of Britain and Germany reduced to ten millions each—a change less in magnitude than that which has occurred in many countries—and these ten millions only retained by advantages as great as the new world can offer, what would all the changes of the past half century be to that? This may happen, even without any application of Stephenson's great idea—the one idea he never worked out—that if engineers, instead of trying to increase the power applicable to driving ships, were to reduce the friction which retards ships, the world would speedily be one great parish. This writer, who has seen many countries and lived among many races, seriously believes that of all the dangers to which Europe and European society are exposed, none is so formidable as the passsion for emigration; seriously doubts whether, if education once spreads in Europe, it will be possible to retain its population cooped up in their narrow and half exhausted corner of the world. We think, we English, that we know what emigration is; but we know nothing about it, have no idea of the changes it would involve if aided by the whole force of the masses then in possession of the supreme political power. Suppose those five-sixths of the Englishmen who now work for others choose to go elsewhere and work for themselves. The change between Waterloo and Sadowa would be very slight compared with the change between 1868 and 1918, and there is not a sensible man in England who will declare that alteration beyond the reach of thought. Why should not emigration in England and Germany attain the height it has reached in Ireland, and the masses insist on aiding it through the national fleets. The Irish would, if they had the power, and the British have this year the power conferred on them. We say nothing of a discovery which, if it is ever made, will remould all human society, slowly pulverize all differences among nations, fusing the world into one people, and immediately destroy all existing political arrangements—the discovery of a means of maintaining and guiding a raft ten feet or so in the air, for we cannot resist a totally unreasonable impression that the discovery will be made; that progress will not in our time make that astounding leap. Apart altoffether from that, there are physical forces now at work strong enough to change the whole face of the world, by shifting its population."

Singular Suicide of Three Girls.

A singular case of triple suicide took place on Friday morning at and near the Queen's Road bridge, Regent's Canal, Dalston. From the statement of John Whitemane, keeper of the Acton Dock, it seemed that he was aroused at about a quarter to two by a man in charge of the pump engine on the canal, who having heard screams, followed by a splashing in the water, had come for the drags. Whitemane immediately got up and proceeded to the spot indicated, about one hundred and fifty yards from the lock house, and after dragging for a short time, succeeded in bringing to the shore the body of a girl, which having been conveyed to the Sister's Public House, in the Pownall Road, was found to be lifeless.

In the meantime the police became acquainted with the melancholy occurrence, and Inspector Ramsay, with several policemen, followed the party to the house of the above named for the drags, as it was known that two other girls had jumped from the Queen's Road bridge. Whitemane at once returned, and after a short time brought one body to the surface. The weight on the drags was very great, and it was soon discovered that the hand of the body in sight was tightly holding the hair of the other unfortunate creature. Both having been got out of the water dead, the bodies were placed on a gate and removed to Shoreditch Workhouse, whither the first had been conveyed on a stretcher.

It further transpired that the whole of the deceased had been seen together at a late hour, at one time sitting in the street drinking from a bottle, and two of their companions say that they spoke of making away with themselves. Previous to jumping from the bridge, one of those who chose that method of ending their existence observed: "There are some papers in my bosom and handkerchiefs—that will be sufficient," and afterwards turned to her sister, to whom she gave a portrait of herself, telling her to "give that to father, he would know where she was."

No papers were, however, discovered upon her, but two folded pocket handkerchiefs were found under her dress. The girls who jumped from the bridge joined hands. Their names are Watts and Haycose, aged between 16 and 17, but the body of the other has not yet been identified. At present no cause can be assigned for such an extraordinary act. The deceased have the appearance of having been respectable servants.—London Star.

One Session a Day in Schools.

The Pall Mall Gazette states that a new and not unimportant reform is about to be introduced in German schools, viz: the abolition of all afternoon classes. It was principally during the past summer months that the experiment was almost forced upon the authorities. The results are on all sides reported to have been more brilliant. The forenoon classes are, we believe, somewhat, but not much, longer than formerly; but it is said that the pupils show an eagerness and a vigor in those short morning hours which have never been shown before, and their progress is quite in keeping with their keen and energetic assiduity. The most curious point about the matter seems to be the fully authenticated fact that the schools having hitherto only closed experimentally earlier or later according to the wishes of the respective head masters, the progress shown by the various schools stands in an adverse ratio to the duration of the classes, or in other words, the less hours beyond the four or five of the morning in school the more did the boys get on with their lessons.

Profits of Lecturing.

The Cleveland Leader says: With reference to the profits of our lecture courses, it must be said that most of them are failures. And this is no mean consideration, for, undertaken as they are in nine cases out of ten for the benefit of library associations, christian associations and similar benificent institutions, their success is a matter of public interest. Why is it that in a majority of cases they are not pecuniarily profitable? The causes are mainly the disinclination of the public to hear new lecturers, which limits the field to a very few lecturers, and the exhorbitantly high prices which these few men who have achieved popularity demand. Associations thus find themselves between the Scylla of audiences and the Charybdis of lecturers. If they invite Phillips or Beecher or Agassiz or Miss Dickinson, they have to pay a price which, at least in our smaller towns, swallows up the receipts; if they invite a cheaper and less notorious lecturer, their audiences fail to appear, and they have no receipts at all. The prices now charged by our most popular lecturers are immense. Miss Dickinson has raised her charge to $200 a lecture. Phillips asks the same amount, and both lecturers have all they want to do during the season, even at these prices. Gough is content with $150. Tilton, Beecher and Curtis charge the same. Willett asks from $100 to $125, according to the size of the town in which he speaks. Nasby, Emerson, Bayard Taylor, Holland, General Howard, E. P. Whipple, Youmans, and many others ask $100. Nobody of any repute in the lecture field pretends to ask less than $75. These prices are utterly disproportionate to literary labor in other fields. Mr. Phillips, for instance, speaks each winter five nights in a week for at least twenty weeks in the year, say one hundred nights. For this he receives the round sum of $20,000. His expenses for the four months thus employed would be liberally estimated at $2,000, leaving a profit of $18,000. The same lecture, if proffered to the Atlantic Monthly for publication, would be liberally paid for at $500. The disparity is obvious. It will hold good with every one of our popular lecturers.

It may be said on the other hand that so long as these lecturers find their time abundantly occupied at these prices, they have no business to ask less, and perhaps this may be true of some half dozen or a dozen of the most popular. But there are many who have attained some popularity, and would meet with much greater success if instead of charging $75 or $100 they would content themselves with from $30 to $50. It the custom were prevalent of reducing the prices of this second grade of our lecturers, many lecture courses might be made self-sustaining which are not now, and the lecturers themselves would find their engagements multiplying so rapidly as to atone for the pecuniary loss on a single one. We hope that some such reform as this may be introduced. Else we fear the discontinuance to a great extent of our lecture system.

The Indians Capture a Train on the Union Pacific Road—The Fireman Killed.

We have received intelligence that confirms the report of the capture of a freight train on the Union Pacific railroad last Saturday morning; instead of being at Great Island, however, it was a mile or two west of Alkali Station. The Indians effected the capture of the train by cutting the ties in the center and thus spreading the rails so that when it came along about 2 o'clock in the morning of the day stated, it was piled up together, and made a perfect wreck. In the disaster the fireman was killed, he being jammed in between the locomotive and the tender, where for three hours he suffered the horrible torture of scalding, when death came to his relief. All the men of the train fled when the disaster occurred, to escape from the Indians, but the engineer, who remained with the fireman and did everything in his power to release the poor fellow from his horrible situation. But his unaided effort could accomplish nothing. While suffering these tortures the fireman begged of the engineer to kill him, but the latter could not find it in his heart to take a human life.

The Indians then burned the railroad bridge near by, for the apparent purpose of destroying the passenger train that was soon to follow the freight train already destroyed. But Mr. Nichols, the Division Superintendent, had come down to the wreck from Alkali with a locomotive. He started on the return, and then discovered that the Indians had got between him and the station, and were endeavoring to blockade the track. He had a trusty Spencer rifle with him, and with that he fought the Indians off, and got back to the station. He immediately telegraphed west to the coming passenger train and stopped it. Thus it and its precious freight of human lives were saved from a horrible death. Mr. Nichols is deserving of great praise for the promptness and courage with which he acted in the case.

Mr. Nichols also telegraphed to Fort Sedgwick for troops, and a company of Pawnee Scouts and a battallion of cavalry under Major Hughes, were dispatched to the place, but when they arrived the hostile Indians were all gone. Mr. N. says that when he arrived at the scene of the disaster there were about a hundred Indians congregated on adjacent hill around a bonfire. Very quickly after he saw similar bonfires lighted successively, as signal lights, on the distant hills, around each of which he could see bands of Indians. He calculates that their whole force amounted to a thousand warriors. These Indians were Sioux and Cheyennes.—Omaha Republican, Nov. 3.

Nasby Tenders His Resignation.

On the night of the election, when the Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby had received returns enough to satisfy him that his candidate, Seymour, had been defeated, he immediately sent a dispatch to Gen. Grant, at Galena, tendering his resignation of the Postoffice at the "Confedrit X Roads," Kentucky, which he has so ably filled and so greatly adorned. He proposes to buy out Bascom, and go into the corner grocery business. The General has been too busy to accept the resignation, and in the meanwhile there are powerful influences at work to induce him not to accept it, but to retain the services of so valuable and trustworthy a public functionary. Notwithstanding the "conservative" character of the politics of Mr. Nasby, we will cheerfully sign a petition for his retention in office, being willing to make an exception in behalf of so distinguished and honest a Democrat. We should like to see him have the Toledo Postoffice if it is thought best to rotate him from the Cross Roads office.

THE SOLDIER'S SONG.

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

BY F. R. B.

AIR—"Star Spangled Banner."

King George sent his cohor s from Albion's shore,
And heroes sprang forth to repel the pollution;
The tread of the tyrant they stepped in his gore,
And conquering gave us a free Constitution.
When c ased war's alarms,
Then the foremost in arms,
Great Washington ruled, giving peace double charms:
And Liberty swore, by the patriots slain,
No kingcraft should rule in Columbia again.

The sun of prosperity beamed on the land,
With blessings abundant enriching the nation;
Her ships plowed the main, and on every strand
The banner they bore won the people's ovation;
In myriads they came,
Her protection to claim,
And to share in America's freedom and fame,
O swear, freemen, swear, by the patriots slain,
No kingcraft shall rule in Columbia again.

By compass and square, marking justice and truth,
Her laws mildly ruling, all rights were respected;
The glory of ages she won in her youth,
The follies of ages her statesmen rejected,
Till traitors arose
To break her repose,
And seizing the sword were her deadliest foes,
O swear, freemen, swear, by the patriots slain,
No traitor shall rule in Columbia again.

The demon of discord, disunion and hate,
And the slavery fiend, with unhallowed ambition,
Unfurled the foul flag of rebellion, to sate
Their traitorous scorn of America's mission.
What great Washington gave,
God sent Grant to save,
And the victory in war shall 'n peace rule the brave;
For we swear by the blood of the patriots slain,
No traitor shall rule in Columbia again.

Ye sons of Columbia, who gallantly fought
A hundred red battles from river to ocean,
Defending the freedom your forefathers bought
With the coin of their blood, shed in war's dread commotion,
From the patriot's grave,
Comes the wail of the brave
Who died our great Union to form and to save,
O swear, comrades, swear, or our blood's shed in vain,
No rebel shall rule in Columbia again.

Ungrateful for mercy, a traitorous band,
With impious greed, seeks the rule of the nation;
O say, shall the Temple of Liberty stand,
Its ramparts unshattered, and firm its foundation!
Then rise in your might,
And vote as you fight,
For Union and Liberty, God and the Right.
O swear, comrades, swear, by the blood of the slain,
No traitor shall rule in Columbia again.

—The New Zealand gold fields have, during the three years which have elapsed since their discovery, produced abaut $33,000,000.

—A man named Reavis is writing a pamphlet to prove that the National Capital should be removed to St. Louis. Reavis lives in St. Louis.

—Carleton is to publish this week an autobiography of Brick Pomeroy. Why anybody should care to read the book we are unable to determine.

—The New York Times thinks the President's salary should be raised to $100,000. The Times probably forgets that although the next President is a Grant, his successor might be even another Johnson, and the present is not the best time to increase expenses any how.

—A new clinic addition has been made to the Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia at a cost of 26,000. The building will be ready for use in January.

—Kentucky is about as good a place as we know of for queer things to happen. A mother and son were ground up there in a sugar cane mill not long ago.

—A Chicagoan attempted suicide in Lake Michigan a few days ago. A friend rescued him, and in doing so tore the suicide's pantaloons, whereupon he thrashed the friend for his carelessness.

—Flotow's new opera L'Ombre has only four characters and no chorus. If it could get along without an orchestra too, what a blessing it would be to many of the opera troupes which travel this way.

—Mr. Sinn, of the Chestnut Street Theatre, and Mrs. John Drew, of the Arch Street Theatre, in Philadelphia, are having a legal squabble about the right to produce Byron's comedy, "The Lancashire Lass."

—The heavy winds which have blown down so many buildings throughout the country seem to affect the geese, at least they had more blown down than any property owners in the windy regions.

—The Florida fruit crops have been increasing so fast that if they keep on in a like ratio for a little while longer, the United States will be under no further necessity of importing oranges and lemons from Cuba.

—Under the head of "Field Sports," the Cincinnati Commercial informs its readers that a man named Christian Wehman drove his own wagon over his own foot, and will have to have that useful member amputated.

—A National Convention of Women is to meet in Washington during the first week of December. They are to talk about female suffrage, and babies being of comparatively small importance may be left at home.

—On the 29th ult., the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway Company, through their agent at Hannibal, sold to a German colony from Pennsylvania, nineteen thousand acres of unimproved land lying a few miles from the railroad.

—Rich gold fields, it is reported, have been discovered on the northern frontiers of Norway and Russia. The severity of climate will, however, prevent the places from being worked by emigrants from southern and middle Europe.

—During the first ten months of this year Philadelphia used 10,093,425,492 gallons of water, pumped by the Fairmount Water Works. This is just about 990,529,101 gallons more than the same city used in the same months of last year.

—It is purposed, in Boston, to gather together all the flags, canvass, bunting, timber, scantling, and whatever else of the paraphernalia of the late campaign that remain, and to dispose of them for the benefit of the poor the coming winter.

—In passing Faneuil Hall the other evening, we caught some boys throwing stones at that venerable structure. "What are you doing, you young rascals?" we demanded. "Merely rocking the Cradle," replied one of the youthful reprobates.—Boston Transcript.

—The Pennsylvania Central Railroad owns more locomotives than any other railroad in America, and probably more than any other railroad in the world. 532 is the number, and if they were stretched out in a line, that line would be more than a mile and a half long.

—The New York World says: "A very singular subject has lately been finished by W. H. Beard. It is entitled 'Raining Cats and Dogs,' and represents a tremendous storm-cloud, from which every possible variety of the canine and feline race comes tumbling pell-mell to earth."

—Some time ago the Philadelphia Press contained the piece of poetry which we reprint this morning. The initials T. R. B. and the address, Pittsburgh, leads us to suppose that our talented fellow citizen Felix R. Brunot, Esq., may be the author. We do not know if our supposition be right or wrong.

—All the funny people in Pittsburgh, and all those who not being themselves funny, appreciate exquisite fun in others, must be delighted to know that Mark Twain is to lecture before the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association on the 19th. Mark has a much better right to the title of funniest man than the well known New York reprobate had to that of the wickedest man.

—The Viceroy of Egypt resorts to peculiar methods to render himself popular. For instance he recently caused a rumor or rather a proclamation to be circulated in Egypt to the effect that a diabolical attempt had been made to assassinate him. This was used as the ground work on which to rest various popular demonstrations in his favor, and as a reason for persecuting various distasteful officials of dangerously high rank.

—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says that a great many persons know that the manufacturing interests of that city are on the decline, that two of the largest machine shops have recently failed and the rest are doing almost nothing; that there is not a locomotive, steamboat engine, hull, cabin or sugar mill being built there; that there are but few Cincinnati merchants who sell as much goods in a year as some of Chicago do in a month. "Cincinnati Drying Up," is the heading of this communication, and it asks with seeming solicitude, "Has Cincinnati her growth?"

How working women are paid in Paris is shown by the following list of prices: Seamstresses making summer corsets receive for each twenty-five centimes, and earn daily one and one-half francs, if they are quick and skillful. Seamstresses sewing and lining linen dusters earn, at the most, one and one-third francs daily. Those who make and trim crinolines receive fifty centimes for each, and cannot make more than two daily. Seamstresses trimming winter overcoats, one and one-half francs daily; making winter corsets, two francs daily; sewing button holes in paper collars, one and one-half francs daily, if they are able to finish two hundred and sixteen button holes during the day.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 11.—The dry goods trade in this department remains inert, and as a general thing prices rule steady, the only change of importance noticeable to-day being a reduction of ½c per yard in Lancaster fancy prints, which are now selling at 12c. Other styles of cotton staples are dull, nevertheless the prices are sustained, notwithstanding the pressure in the money market. Seasonable styles of woolen goods for ladies' wear are in steady request, but apart from specialties there is not much animation, the prevalent weather being still too fine for active business.

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose steadily all day yesterday, and was still rising last evening, with seven feet six inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather was cold and blustery, with an occasional squall of snow, and the rain is over for the present. Business continues rather dull at the landing, the offerings of freight for all points being comparatively light.

Capts. Frank and D. W. Marratta left for Cincinnati yesterday by rail. The former has command of the Alice Dean, and the latter is in charge of the John H. Groesbeck, both Cincinnati and New Orleans packets.

The Glasgow, from Cincinnati, and Kate Putnam, from St. Louis, arrived during Tuesday evening. The Putnam was lying across the river yesterday putting off metal. Captain Reed looks about as well as ever.

The New State and Grey Eagle arrived and departed with moderate trips.

The St. Charles left for Cincinnati yesterday afternoon with a light freight list, but a good number of passengers.

The Bayard, Capt. A. S. Shepard, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, is filling up steadily for New Orleans, and will probably get off on Saturday.

The Bellevernon, Capt. Darragh, is announced to leave for Evansville to-day, on her first trip, in the Pittsburgh and Evansville packet trade. We hope that Capt. Darragh, will leave here with a good trip to-day, and besides it is important to our manufacturing interests that such should be the case.

The Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, with Mr. James Russell in the office, is announced for the Upper Mississippi.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, Sr. is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will be the first boat out.

—The Lorena left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Monday, with a very good trip. Pilots—R. G Shinkle and Chas. Boyer.

—"Mrs. Jinks," wife of "Capt. Jinks," is the title of a song written by Will. S. Hays, of the Louisville Democrat, and now being published in New York.

—The Octavia has been chartered by the government to deepen the channel of the Mississippi from the mouth of the Illinois to Cairo. She goes to Mound City to be fitted with scraper and other appliances for the purpose.

—A Louisville telegram, under date of Monday, says: The W. H. Brown and Grand Lake, very powerful towboats, were struggling all Sunday to ascend the falls between the piers. The former, at length, succeeded, but the latter is still at the foot of the falls unable to get over, and will be compelled to abandon her trip. The Simpson Horner is below the falls.

—The Louisville Journal and Courier, of Monday, says: The towboats Fred Wilson, with 7 barges and 2 floats; the Warner, with 2 barges, and the J. S. Neal, with 2 barges of coal, arrived from Pittsburgh, on Saturday. The Tom. Rees, Mary Ann and Bengal Tiger, with tows of coal, were due last night. There will not be as much coal brought to this port on the present rise at was at first supposed, owing to the fact that Cincinnati is the best market at the present time.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer: Mr. Paul, one of the pilots to New Orleans on the Golden Era, returned here Saturday. He says Captain Halliday had an offer for three-fourths of the Golden Era, but, wishing to retain command, would not sell more than half an interest. He says the Board of Underwriters there recently ruled out the Big Horn, Pink Varble and Sully from the Red river trade, as they did not meet the requirements, the possession of four-inch bottom. No boats not formerly in the trade, will be insured there with less than that thickness of bottom timbers.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial: The disasters to the coal fleet have been numerous. The Hyena, with 6 barges for Louisville, grounded at Montgomery Island, 40 miles below Pittsburgh, and lost one barge, and at last accounts had succeeded in getting one barge afloat. The Erie, for Cincinnati, lost 2 barges at Economy; the Sampson lost one barge on White's Ripple. The Panther and tow are hard aground at Deadman's. The J. S. Neal damaged one barge below Buffington, and the Diamond damaged one barge at Buffington. Both of them were saved. One barge was left at Ribb's Island, but by what boat is unknown. The Wild Cat stuck one barge, and sunk one flat at Buffington. The James Gilmore stuck 2 barges, and one barge of nut and one other of dust, and also broke her wheel at Buffington. The Wild Cat is coming on. The Lake Erie also grounded 2 barges on Merriman. It is also reported the Coal Hill lost 3 barges. Altogether, 26 barges were sunk and grounded on the present run.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 134¾.

THE Western Press Association will meet at Cleveland on the 18th inst. It is a matter of importance that all journals interested should be represented.

THE Second Congressional district of Illinois is the Republican Banner District. Gen. FARNSWORTH'S majority at the late election was 14,418, a gain of 2,000 in two years.

THE oil regions of West Virginia are again attracting some attention, and doubtless the incoming year will witness a thorough development of the rich territory of the Kanawha.

"Gov. Geary will issue the certificate to Hon. Henry D. Foster, and John Covode will not contest his seat.—Post."

Our contemporary speaks confidently, but its reputation for genuine prophecy has yet to be established.

AT THE Presidential election, the total vote of Cook county, including Chicago, was 46,000; the total vote of Hamilton county, including Cincinnati, 44,300; and the total vote of Allegheny county, including Pittsburgh, 40,158.

GEN. GRANT pays no attention to letters received from those seeking office. He has been overwhelmed with private and confidential epistles from thousands who would not object to make themselves generally useful in some fat governmental position. The letters are either burned before they are opened, or entrusted to the care of an Adjutant who mercilessly packs them into a huge waste basket.

ONE of that class who know everything, or, at least, pretend they do—that is to say, a Washington correspondent—declares, that "It is customary for the Vice President to name one member of the Cabinet and the Department to which he shall be assigned. COLFAX, it is said, will name Senator WADE for Secretary of the Interior." In which event there will be disappointment here in Pennsylvania, on the part of Gov. CURTIN and his friends.

THE Pittsburgh Post regards the movement to give a unanimous electoral vote to GRANT as "a grand step towards conciliation and peace," "sinking all contentions out of sight forever." On the other hand, the Cincinnati Enquirer objects to the proposition as impracticable and absurd, and that GRANT would spurn it as "in the nature of a bribe to conciliate his supposed prejudices." This variance of judgment is easily accounted for. The Enquirer has steadily preferred another candidate, while the Post has ever been partial to GRANT.

THE CUBAN QUESTION.

The popular movement which, in Spain, dethroned a monarchy in a day, and accomplished an absolute revolution without even the formalities of a struggle, has encountered more serious difficulties in Cuba, the principal dependency of that ancient kingdom. The "ever faithful" Island has been maintained in an unvarying loyalty to Bourbon rule, by the strong arguments of a military despotism, administered by absolute autocrats responsible to no earthly power except to the royal caprices at Madrid. The traditional vigor and inflexible energy of Spain, obsolete for generations at home, survive in all their terrible efficiency in the Queen of the Antilles. While Spain has been, since this century came in, given up to misrule, or to no rule at all, its feeble or dissolute monarchs retaining supremacy only because their subjects were without any conception of a true freedom, or any capacity to achieve it, in Cuba, on the other hand, the progress of an enlightened desire for Liberty has been steady and conspicuous. This was attributable, no doubt, in a great degree, to the inevitable influence of proximity to the great Republic, with whose people the Islanders have had such close and constant relations of business and pleasure. Hence, the need for repressing the popular desires for freedom with the strongest hand of a despotic power.

LERSUNDI, the present Captain General, is faithful to his duty. He is resolute to maintain the complete dependency of the Island to whatever government the mother country may have, He accepts the Bourbon dethronement, with the present popular control of the Cortez, and requires the Islanders to follow his example. They ask more, demanding the complete emancipation of Cuba from its colonial subjection. A revolt has resulted, of which we have very unreliable reports in detail, but which does not as yet promise to be successful. The home government has forwarded an increased military force, with DULCE, former Captain General of the Island, in its command. Whether Spain be a monarchy or a republic, she intends to hold Cuba fast in her colonial position.

There are rumors that an expedition is to be organized at New York, for the purpose of aiding the revolutionary Islanders with a material sympathy. But there is no reason to believe that such an intervention can assume any formidable proportions, while it is well understood that our own government is vigilantly observant of any attempted breach of our neutrality, and that, if necessary, the sympathizers would be arrested by Federal authority. The progress of Democratic principles, whether in Spain or in Cuba, will have always our heartiest good-wishes, but international law will never suffer its own violation with either a dollar or a musket, in the way of a more effective propagandism.

FREEDOM IN RELIGION.

Cable telegrams, published in these columns yesterday, announced that the inhabitants of two of the Spanish dependencies, following the example of the people of Spain itself, had petitioned the Provisional Government to decree, not simply Religious Toleration, but, what is quite over and beyond that, Freedom of Public Worship. This circumstance does not derive its chief significance from its own peculiar nature, though that is essentially note-worthy, but from the fact that it is coincident with demonstrations of like import in all parts of Christendom, and, indeed, throughout all countries in which what have been aptly denominated the Stock Religions predominate.

True, it is not our province to sketch minutely the progress of this movement, to trace it backward to the springs from which it proceeded, to analyze the causes which produced it, with marvelous regularity, under great diversities of conditions, much less to predict what will be its future direction and its ultimate results. To perform this task well, would require more space than we could possibly devote to it, a breadth and exactness of special culture, and a power of discrimination and analysis, of insight and induction, which falls to the share of few individuals in a whole generation, and to which we make no pretensions. Yet there are certain outstanding features of this movement, so bold and prominent that it is impossible not to see them, and so grand and impressive that whoever has made a study of the larger and more consequential on-goings of the human race, cannot help speculating upon them.

Christian Missionaries, of all denominations, pursuing their labors in India, speak in almost glowing terms of a disposition on the part of young men especially, to discard traditionary ideas and to apply to the investigation of theologic problems the same methods which have latterly been accepted as correct in other departments of knowledge.

In China, the Missionaries speak in terms of exultation of doors unexpectedly opened, through the interposition of Providence, for the spread of the Gospel. This is but another way of stating that the old exclusiveness and bigotry which, age after age, held China in their iron gripe, have been relaxed, and that its teeming millions are at last starting with more or less consciousness in pursuit of a higher system than that which they inherited.

In Turkey the same symptoms are disclosed, and to such a degree that the ancient rigors of Moslemism are falling into decay, to the disquietude, if not the dismay, of its blind and infatuated votaries.

In Italy, France, Austria, and Spain, Catholic populations exhibit a discontent with all forms of Spiritual Despotism. They assert the rights of conscience, demand freedom of worship, the popular education of the children, the secularization of marriage, and other innovations which show what strength the movement had gathered in the minds and hearts of the multitudes, before it came to the surface, demanding recognition and acquiescence.

In Protestant countries, what may be roughly characterized as the same progress is presented in two different aspects—one in the churches, and one outside of them. The movement inside is marked by the decadence of denominational peculiarities of doctrine, and a drawing together on matters which are of practical pith and moment. A man may now attend church for ten years regularly without hearing what was once regarded as the fundamental ideas of the organization insisted on with anything like the old scope and intensity. A mellowing in respect to abstract ideas and an assimulation as to duties to be done, and the way of doing them, are too conspicuous not to seen and pondered. Outside the churches philosophic inquiry is the fashion—much of it shallow and superficial, some of it learned and devout—all of it challenging antiquity and demanding the introduction into the domain of religion of the methods of inquiry sanctioned in all departments of secular investigation.

So much for facts palpable on the face of events. Whoever has the natural endowments and the mental and moral training fitting him to grasp the germ and the details of this great theme, and so to unravel and elucidate it as to set it forth in its true light and in all its just bearings, will contribute materially to the guidance of many minds which are now bewildered by movements so vast that they do not discern their full extent and co-relations, and hence are driven, they know not whither. Who among the acknowledged leaders of religious thought feels himself equal to this high service?

"WICKED RADICALISM."

Our neighbors of the Post some days since perceived an early likelihood that "the wicked Radicalism of the GAZETTE will become more intensely fiendish." As there is an exact accord in the views expressed by this journal on public questions, with those held by a large majority of the people, whether of the State or Nation, and by the new administration to which that people have resolved to confide the direction of affairs, it follows that the unkind parts of speech in which the Post deals so freely, are quite as applicable to government and people as to the Pittsburgh GAZETTE. We can support our neighbor's displeasure in such comfortably reassuring society.

But does the Post really mean what it says? Does it fully comprehend what it talks of? Has it lost its often professed regard for the popular will? Or were these professions only a mere pretense? Is it "wicked Radicalism" to insist that duly enacted laws shall be obeyed until repealed? Is it "intensely fiendish" to ask that loyalty shall preserve what loyalty has won? Is it "wicked Radicalism" to proclaim the right and the duty of the Federal authority to reconstruct those State governments which were shattered by the suicidal rebellion of their peoples? Is it "intensely fiendish" to guarantee in that reconstruction, and to those peoples, "republican forms of government?" Is it "wicked Radicalism" to ordain that the vote in the black man's hands shall preserve that liberty which it needed the musket in the same hands to redeem from extinction? Is it "fiendish malignity" to decline the folly of entrusting the personal and political franchises, not only of themselves, but of the four millions who are the only loyal race in all those States, to the same rebels who are giving, every hour, fresh proofs of their unfitness to control these franchises equitably and peacefully. Is it "wicked Radicalism," in nearly half a million majority of the people, to nominate and elect as President a man who is pledged to maintain peace, on the basis of a Supreme Law for all the land, with the obedience thereto of all citizens alike, whether loyal or rebel, whether in Maine or Louisiana? Is it "fiendish malignity" to commend our successful candidate as a man "well disposed to deal fairly with the people of all sections of the Union"? Is it "wicked Radicalism" to ask for him now an unanimous support "as the President of the People"? Is it "fiendish malignity" in the GAZETTE—any more than it was in the Post of June, 1867, or in the eminent Democrats, who, with the Post itself, are now urging the expediency of giving unanimously to President GRANT all those Electoral votes which, they justly say, "could do SEYMOUR no good,"—to entreat all the people to lay aside their partizan prejudices, and to come up as one man heartily to the support of his administration, in the great work of restoring peace and prosperity to the Republic? Is it "wicked Radicalism," to remind even the Post of the noble sentiments to which it gave utterance, but little more than one year ago? Is it "fiendish malignity" to urge our neighbor to retrace its subsequent steps and rise again to that loftier plane of patriotism, upon which the array of a no longer divided people would be "the happiest thing for our country that could possibly occur"?

If all these things be "wicked Radicalism" or "fiendish malignity," let us make haste not only to plead guilty to the Post's indictment, but to suggest that even itself would do better to exchange its place of prosecutor for that of participant in such a popular crime. Judging from its yesterday's concurrence in the proposition to give the Electoral votes unanimously to GRANT, we conclude that this "wicked Radicalism," whether of the new President, of the people, or of the Pittsburgh GAZETTE, is not so "fiendish" but that the Post is abundantly willing to share it. We welcome its future co-operation, without any "malignity" whatever in our congratulations.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

This question remains still in a remarkably unsettled state, considering that its final and absolute settlement has been announced so often and in such particularity of detail. The very latest "understanding" runs as follows:

The United States have waived the point regarding the recognition of the belligerency of the South by England, but the State Department does not accept the proposals of the British Ministry, which are to refer to an arbiter the question of the lawful responsibility of England for the Alabama depredations. In the event of the arbiter deciding that England is responsible, then the whole subject is to be referred to a joint Commission. The State Department insists, on the contrary, that arbitration is not necessary, and that England and the United States should agree, and at once appoint a Commission, and that the appointment of this Commission on the part of England should be equivalent to an acknowledgement of the wrong that was inflicted upon the United States by the hasty recognition of the Southern belligerency.

EDITORS GAZETTE: In your paragraph of yesterday giving the vote of Omaha, Nebraska, at the late election, at 3,052, you are mistaken in the statement that this vote shows a larger population for Omaha than that of any other city west of Chicago and north of St. Louis, with perhaps the exception of Quincy.

At the election just passed St. Paul, Minnesota, cast 3,135 votes, thus beating Omaha eighty-three. In Nebraska impartial suffrage prevails, and the colored vote of Omaha is considerable, being likely over four hundred. In Minnesota colored people have hitherto been debarred the elective franchise, though at the late election an impartial suffrage amendment to the Constitution of that State was adopted. Had this been the rule before, some two hundred would have been added to the vote of St. Paul, which, with less than half the colored vote of Omaha, would have shown an aggregate vote of some three hundred more than the latter. A.

THE greatest problem which the new government of Spain will have to solve, is the re-organization of the national finances, which are now in a shocking condition. The deficit of the present year, it is expected, will reach the enormous sum of 50,000,000 pounds sterling. The government tries to raise a loan of 200,000,000 crowns.

Opinions of the Press.

[From the Huntingdon Journal.]

While we are willing to admit that Pennsylvania has scores of men who are eminently fitted for the United States Senatorship, and who would be capable and worthy representatives of the second State in the Union, we trust that we are entirely free from sectional prejudice or personal bias, when we say that amongst the gifted and talented of the land, there is no one more capable, no one more worthy, and most certainly no one whose election would render more universal satisfaction, or reflect more brilliant honor upon the name of the Republican party, and of the Commonwealth, than would that of the Hon. John Scott, of Huntingdon.

Let the members of our Legislature in the discharge of this important duty, look, and look only, to the capacity, integrity and fitness of aspirants. The people of this great Commonwealth, honest and loyal, demand this at their hands.

[From the Millersburg Register.]

Looking about for a candidate that has had the experience and possesses the qualifications and talents to fill that office creditably to the State; and also taking into consideration the locality, we think that the Hon. Glenni W. Scofield, of the Erie district, should be the Republican candidate for that office. Mr. Scofield is a Radical Republican, and one of the ablest members of Congress from Pennsylvania—and ranks indeed with the ablest men in that body. He has served his constituents with great ability, and reflected honor upon the Commonwealth. He has a national as well as a State reputation. He is in the prime of life, and in the full vigor of manhood and talent.

[From the Meadville Republican.]

We have spoken many times of Galusha A. Grow's services to the country in the past. His record is one of undeviating fidelity to Republican principles. Among the faithless he has ever stood faithful, while not a single blemish exists against his private or public life. Twelve years of experience in Congress during the most memorable period of our country's existence has prepared him for service where he would reflect credit upon our Commonwealth. Without disparaging others who may seek this honorable distinction, we make bold to say that there is no man in Pennsylvania who would fill the high office of United States Senator with greater satisfaction to the people than Galusha A. Grow. He has nobly earned the position by his services in the party, as well as by his fidelity to the great principles of free government.

[From the Greensburg Herald.]

So far as we have had opportunity to judge of the sentiments of our Republican friends in Westmoreland country, we are at no loss to know who is their preference for the United States Senatorship. Last February Hon. Galusha A. Grow had their endorsement as our choice for Vice President—even over Governor Geary. Nothing Mr. Grow has done since has tended, in any way, to shake their confidence. There is certainly no Republican in the State more competent, nor more deserving or reliable. Full of energy, in the prime of life, clear-headed, strong-minded, and purely honest; of plain manners, dignified deportment, yet approachable by the humblest citizen; thoroughly tried and never found wanting, he is just the man we want.

[From the Philadelphia Post.]

"The re-nomination of Gov. Geary is almost a certainty, for he is not only without an opponent, but it is hardly possible that any other candidate will be presented to the Republican party. His brilliant war record is the first though not the most important element of his popularity. What the people of Pennsylvania think of his services in the army was cleary shown in the election of 1866, when he carried the State by a majority of 17,000. But a better reason why he should serve a second term is the ability and dignity of his administration, which has been characterized by energy and wisdom. General Geary, in the late canvass, was also active and influential, and his speeches and labors had an important effect upon the result in October and November. Nor should we forget that he is the warm personal friend of General Grant, who would be rejoiced to have his old comrade in the field supporting him during his administration. These advantages and merits make Gov. Geary the strongest candidate the Republicans of Pennsylvania could have."

The Consular System.

The Fifth Auditor of the Treasury Department reports that for the year ending June 30, 1868, the aggregate salaries paid to the United States Consuls, including losses in exchange, amounted to $373,750. The total receipts in fees from consulates were $435,179, showing a revenue from this course of $61,429. The consular system of the United States was never self supporting until the year 1866. Since then the net revenue from this source has amounted to over $60,000 a year. The report also shows that the total expenses of assessing the internal revenue throughout the country for the year ending June 30, 1868, was $5,181,179. The total amount paid to revenue and special agents during the same period, including salary and expense, was $153,413. The total amount paid in counsel fees in internal revenue cases, and as rewards to informers, was $48,808. The total amount of taxes erroneously assessed and collected and refunded, was $1,106,515.

Anxious to Bury the Democratic Party.

And what shall we do now? Our advice would be to disband the Democratic party at once, for it is pretty effectually killed off; and organize a new conservative party to support Grant, if his course shall justify it. In this way the Radical leaders may be sloughed off from the Administration, and a great conservative party built up that will control the destinies of the country. The Whig party went under in 1852, when it was not worse beaten than the Democracy were on Tuesday, and had a better odor in the North than its successful rival has now. "History is philosophy teaching by examples." Let us profit by it, and try to make amends for the errors of the past three years. Democracy being dead, let us bury it out of sight.—Lynchburgh Virginian.

THE BRIDGE over Broadway, at Fulton street, New York, having been ordered to be removed as a nuisance, it is now suggested that the street at this point should be tunneled. The few steps leading down under ground, it is asserted, would not prove so formidable an obstacle as the high flight of steps leading up to the bridge, which overshadows the neighboring stores. The objection that the tunnel would form a lurking place for robbers is answered by stating that it could be closed at night, when the incessant travel of carts is suspended. At present policemen are required to stand at the corners to secure a safe transit for foot passengers. It seems singular, however, that a rule has not been adopted in New York that a certain space should be preserved between the vehicles passing along the streets. Though it by no means follows tha? the rule would be enforced.

THERE is a young Irish boy, ten years old, in Northampton, Mass., has been kept herding cows, and while thus employed has devoted his time to modeling animals (cows, oxen, sheep, dogs and cats) in clay, and the likeness of some of them is very striking. With the aid of brick dust, charcoal and chalk he makes perfect Durhams.

CLIPPINGS.

THE Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, it is reported, has been engaging the attention of Northern capitalists, who have offered the State for her interest in the road $1,500,000 in bonds of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and $500,000 in legal tenders.

A HISTORY of the slave trade carried on with the port of Charleston from 1804 to 1808, taken from the Custom-house records, has recently been published. The whole number of slaves brought into Charleston during the period mentioned amounted to 38,776. Of these 19,649 were brought in English ships, 679 by Frenchmen, and, 8,163 in American vessels.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN NEW ENGLAND.—A call has been issued for a Convention in Boston, to be held on the 18th and 19th inst., to discuss the woman question, with particular reference to the ballot, and to form an Association "for the wise, systematic and efficient advocacy of woman suffrage and its kindred civil and political rights."

THE Pope, according to the latest advices, has been under the medical treatment of an Italian physician, who is reported to have given an unfavorable opinion of the condition of his patients. The frequent suppuration of the diseased leg is regarded as a dangerous symptom. The Pope, however, it is stated, is very active, and appears otherwise to enjoy good health.

ADVICES from Oregon, indicate that the the vote in that State on the 3d inst., was close, but the returns from most of the Eastern counties, distance about five days from the telegraph stations, ought now to be heard from. The probibilities are that they are all gone Democratic as they have been recently filled up with men from Rebel States, and are so scattered that they probably did not hear from the October elections in the East when they voted.

THE law making Gen. Grant General of the armies, revived the old law providing for the grade of General of the Army, and left it to the discretion of the President of the United States to appoint, or not to appoint an officer to that position. The resignation of Gen. Grant would merely make a vacancy, which could be filled by another appointment, if the Executive should deem it necessary or proper that the grade should be continued. The law does not contemplate succession as a matter of course.

THE Scottish Iron Works during 1867, produced 1,031,000 tons of pig iron. There were 164 blast furnaces in the country, of which 112 were at work, and 52 of those at work are cold blast. 489,400 tons of iron were exported, of which the United States took 117,300 tons, Germany and Holland, 99,600, France, 60,000, British America, 43,000, Italy, 14,200, East Indies and South America, 14,000, Russia, 9,000, and Spain and Portugal, 5,100. The export of British iron to the United States during 1867 was 24,300 tons larger than that of the preceding year.

A SPECIAL dispatch, dated November 9th, from Louisville to the Cincinnati Commercial says: Another disaster has occurred on the falls, caused by impediments in the shape of railroad bridges. The immense and powerful towboat Alps, in ascending the Indian chute, struck a rock, which knocked a hole in her bottom, and she sunk in six or seven feet of water at the head of the chute, in mid-river, below Jeffersonville. She had been battling the stiff current between the piers for several hours, and finally succeeded, but the counter currents made her somewhat unmanageable, and she struck a rock or some other obstruction between the piers. She lies on the shelving rocks with the water over her lower guards, and as the river is likely to be falling by morning, she may be raised. She lies straight with the current.

THE GREAT MEDICAL MISTAKE

Of former days was an utter neglect of sanitary precautions. No efficient means were adopted for the prevention of sickness. Sewerage was unknown in cities; drainage was rarely attempted in the country. Heaps of offal were left to rot in the public streets, and domestic cleanliness, the great antidote to febrile diseases, was sadly neglected. It is not so now. Wise laws, philanthropic institutions, and a vigilant sanitary police, have, to a great extent, remedied the evil. Nor is this all. PREVENTIVE MEDICATION has helped materially to lessen the rates of mortality. It is not too much to say that TENS OF THOUSANDS escape sickness in unhealthy seasons in consequence of having INVIGORATED THEIR SYSTEMS IN ADVANCE by a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This pure and powerful vegetable tonic and alterative comprises the extracts and essences of a variety of roots and herbs, renowned for their strengthening, soothing, vitalizing and purifying properties. These medicinal agents are incorporated with a spirit absolutely free from the acrid poison which defiles, more or less, all the liquors of commerce, and their effect is diffused through the whole frame by this active, yet harmless stimulant. The result is such a condition of the system as renders it all but impervious to the exterior causes of disease, such as damp fog, sudden alternations of temperature, &c. Strength, and the perfect regularity of all the functions of the body, are the best safe-guards against atmospheric poison and the effects of unwholesome water, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the best strengthening and regulating medicine at present known. For dyspepsia and billiousness they are a SPECIFIC ABSOLUTE.

LET ANY ONE TRY A FEW BOTTLES OF DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE AND IT WILL ESTABLISH ITS MERITS BEYOND CONTROVERSY.

We feel, in whatever we say in its behalf, that we are conferring a benefit upon thousands of people who would be benefitted by its use. Take any large audience or gathering of people, pay attention for a moment, and see if one out of every ten is not afflicted with a cough. There is no cough without some difficulty of the throat or lungs—trifling it may be at the outset, but gradually growing more and more fearful, until the constitution, at last, is made to succumb to its ravages; and what would have yielded in the beginning to a few doses of medicine has become a fearful lesion, involving life itself. No one can be too careful at this season of the year, to the first premonitors of pulmonary disease, and when a remedy like the one we have named, is within the means of all, the salutary advice which we have given should not be disregarded. Sold at the great Medicine Depot, 140 Wood street.

THE TRIUMPH IN NEW YORK.—The success of the Democrats in this State, instead of being of advantage to the party, will be a great misfortune in the future. Defeat here would have opened the way for a reorganization with new elements. Success here is a continuation of the Bourbon regime. The Republican party, with right councils, has a bright future before it.—N. Y. Advertiser.

THE Board of Education in New York City has made an estimate of the expenditures for school purposes ih 1869, which amount to $3,150,000. The Legislature had, however, authorized a fund of $3,375,898 to be raised, and the overplus of $225,898 is to be expended in increasing the salaries of the teachers and in erecting a normal school.

BUY THE BEST AND CHEAPEST PIANO AND ORGAN.

Schomacker's Gold Medal Piano,

AND ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGAN.

The SCHOMACKER PIANO combines all the latest valuable improvements known in the construction of a first class instrument, and has always been awarded the highest premium wherever exhibited. Its tone is full, sonorous and sweet. The workmanship, for durability and beauty, surpass all others. Prices from $50 to $150, (according to style and finish,) cheaper than all other so-called first class Piano.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGAN

Stands at the head of all reed instruments, in producing the most perfect pipe quality of tone of any similar instrument in the United States. It is simple and compact in construction, and not liable to get out of order.

CARPENTER'S PATENT "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is only to be found in this Organ. Price from $100 to $550. All guaranteed for five years.

PROPOSAL.

The Commissioners appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of locating and building a

HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE.

for the Northern District of Pennsylvania, having selected a site on the Susquehanna river in the vicinity of Danville, Montour county, Pennsylvania, will receive proposals until at noon, for the erection and construction of a Hospital with all its appurtenances upon said site in accordance with all the plans and specifications of John McArthur, Junior, Architect, adopted by them and approved by the Governor.

The plans and specifications can be examined at the office of the Architect, No. 205 SOUTH SIXTH STREET, Philadelphia, every day, (except Sunday,) between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., until the time above mentioned for receiving bids.

Parties making Proposals, must furnish sureties, whose responsibility to the amount of $10,000 shall be certified to before a Justice of the Peace, that they will, in case their bill is accepted enter into a contract, within ten days from the time of opening the bids, with satisfactory security to the amount of $25,000 that the same will be fulfilled in a complete and satisfactory manner.

Proposals to be considered must be in accordance with the printed form adopted by the Commissioners, which can be obtained from either of the Commissioners, the Superintendent of the Hospital or at the office of the Architect.

All bidders desiring information of the site are referred to Dr. S. S. Schultz, Superintendent of the Hospital, at Danville.

Proposals must be marked as such and sent to Isaac X. Grier, Esq., Danville, Pennsylvania, in whose office the bids will be opened in presence of such bidders as may be present on the evening of Tuesday, November 24, 1868.

The Commissioners reserve the right at their discretion to reject any or all bids not deemed to the interest of the Commonwealth or otherwise satisfactory to them.

"MARGARET MERLYN,"

IS THE TITLE OF

MRS. SWISSHELM'S

leng talked of work. It is a tale of

WOMAN'S WAGES,

and abounds in the home truths for which the author is noted, and which are here interwoven with a dramatic interest, and that is unflagging to the end. An accomplished critic, who read it, says: "There is not a dull page in it." It gives startling revelations of the inside workings of private benevolent institutions, and must be deeply interesting to all who would like to know what sometimes is done with the money paid to charitable societies. It will be commenced as a serial

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, November 11, 1868.

The entire market in regard to finances is unsettled, and the appearance of a bull market is very delusive, and the undertone is decidedly bearish except the rate of money which is tightening more and more. The bull element, and the numerous speculators out of Wall street, are clasping any straw that might give the market an appearance of strength, but we can see nothing but temporary reactions.

Gold opened weak at 133⅞; became firmer and closed steady from 134¼ to 134⅜; the under current, however, is for lower rates at present.

Bonds opened dull, and at a decline of one-half to three-fourth per cent. at noon, the market was bouyant, and had advanced, but after banking hours, the market weakened, and the tendency for the present is for lower prices, although a sharp rally may set in at any moment, preparatory to the meeting of Congress, when it is expected that a resolution will be passed, guaranteeing the payment of bonds in gold.

Stocks opened dull and lower, but towards noon, the market strengthened, and was firm and higher at 3 p. m. Erie, having touched 38¾, advanced suddenly to 138¾; New York Central, Fort Wayne, Cleveland, Reading and Ohio & Mississippi were all strong. Express shares firmer and higher, and Mining shares are improved.

Business seems to revive, and all dealings connected with the necessaries of life are more animated.

Money less stringent, and good houses find all they want.

—We republish (says the New York Tribune) the following suggstion of John Thompson, Esq., made to Senator Morgan in February last, which, if Congress had acted on, would have saved us two money panics this year and saved at least $200,000,000 depreciation in property. It is to be hoped that at this session it will be acted upon, as it is the simplest and cheapest way of giving elasticity ts the currency:

It has become apparent that an elasticity in the active currency of the country must be provided for in one way or another. Place $20,000,000 of currency (greenbacks) in the hands of the Sub-Treasurer in this city, with orders to loan it on Government bonds and stocks at seven per cent., and on call, taking the bonds as security at eighty or eighty-five. This borrowing would be availed of only in a bad time for money, and such loans would be sure to be paid off and the greenbacks restored to the Treasury on the first ease in the money market.

—The business of the Allegheny Valley Railroad for the month of October was the largest in the history of the road. The amount of oil shipped south from Venango City reached the enormous figure of 80,000 barrels, while 16,000 barrels were shipped from Foster Farm, Scrubgrass and Parkers. The passenger travel continues good.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, November 11, 1868.

We can report no improvement in the tone of the general markets, and as has been the case for some time past, the volume of business, in the aggregate, continues light. There is still an utter want of confidence in regard to values, and operators generally feel very timid about doing anything, and besides the stringency in money matters, has a tendency to restrict any thing like speculation. There are those who believe that Grain and Flour, and some other leading articles, have touched bottom, but with the events of the past two or three months, staring them in the face, they are afraid to make a venture, being apprehensive that what has taken place in the past, might possibly occur in the future. In the meantime, business continues exceedingly dull, the demand for almost everything being restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, while so far as prices are concerned there are no material changes.

APPLE BUTTER—Is dull and unchanged; we continue to quote at 70 to 75 in kegs, and 80 to 85 in crocks.

APPLES—In good supply and rather dull but unchanged, ranging from $2 to $4 per bbl. Sale of 1 car choice, for shipment, at $3,9C.

BEANS—Small sales of prime small white at $3,75 to $4 per bushel.

BUTTER—Is steady with fair local demand, and we can report regular sales of prime to choice Roll at 38 to 40.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is dull but unchanged at 4¾ to 5 cts per pound.

CIDER—Ranges all the way from $6 to $10 per bbl, as to quality and size of barrel.

CHESTNUTS—Quiet and unchanged at $6,50 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—But very few in this market.

EGGS—Unchanged at 34 to 35c.

CHEESE—Is in fair demand, and unchanged.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged. Peaches may be quoted at 12 cents for quarters, and 14c for prime halves. Apples, 9 to 10 cents.

GRAIN—The Grain market continues dull, and there are no regular prices. Wheat is dull and nominal at $1,80 for prime Red Winter. Oats considerably firmer, in consequence of an advance in Chicago, but the demand is light, and prices are unchanged. Corn continues dull, with a drooping tendency; mixed is offering at $1,05, and we heard of a car of Yellow having been offered at the same figure, but this is considered considerably below the market. New Corn is offered at 75c. Rye is dull and receipts large; may be quoted nominally at $1,35 to $1,40. There is no established price for Barley, and the market is dull and irregular.

GROCERIES—The grocery market continues dull, while prices, compared with last week, have undergone no quotable change.

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 14½ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14¼c. Refined—Standard Hard, 17c; A, 16c; B, 15¾c; Extra C, 15¼c; Sugar House, 10½ to 11.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 21½ to 26½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1,10; Silver Drips, $1,10; White Drips, $1,20; medium brands, 75 to 85c; common, 60 to 65c; Booth & Edgars yrup, $1.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10½c; prime to choice, 11 to 11¼c; Carolina, 12 to 12¾c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 95 to $1,05; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 75 to 90c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves 55c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 12½c for new.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c; "Oakely's," 11½c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $9,00. Lake Herring, $5,00; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No; 2, $18,00; No. 3, $13,50; in half barrels, 50c more.

POTATOES—Dull but unchanged; we continue to quote Peach Blows at 70 to 75c, in bulk, and 80 to 85 in sacks. Sales of Jersey Sweets at $5 to $5,25 per bbl.

SALT—Is in steady demand, with regular sales at $1,75 by the car load, and $1,90 to $2, for small lots in store.

HAY—Baled Hay continues very dull, and may be quoted all the way from $18 to $25, for common to prime timothy. Some dealers rather than sell at present figures, are storing, under the impression, that it will bring a better price in the future.

ONIONS—Continue dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand; $4 to $4,50 per bbl.

TALLOW—Prime rendered is in steady demand at 12c.

SEEDS—Dull and prices are nominally unchanged.

FEATHERS—Sales to the trade at 75 for Live Geese Feathers, and 80 to 85 for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is quiet and unchanged. Spring Wheat brands range from $7,50 to $8,25 for good to choice. Rye Flour, $8 to $8,25. The Pearl Mill prices are for Extra Family in barrels, $9,90 and in sacks $9,60 per barrel; Double Extra Family in barrels $10,40. and in sacks $10,10 per barrel. City Mills quote prices as follows: Extra Family, in barrels, $9,80, and in sacks, $9,50; Double Extra Family, in barrels, $10,30, and in sacks, $10 per bbl.

PEA NUTS—We can report regular sales at $2 to $2,25 per bushel, as to quality.

WHISKY—The market is quiet and unchanged at $1,20 for both Raw and Rectified.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, November 11, 1868.

CRUDE.

There was again a very fair business done in Crude to-day, notwithstanding the market is weak, with a drooping tendency. Ten cents seems to be the standard price for almost any delivery within the next six months, though at the close, there seemed to be more sellers than buyers at that figure, particularly for this month's delivery. We can report three lots of 1,000 each, and one of 3,000, on spot, at 10c; 1,000 for all the month, at same figure; 1,000 same delivery, on private terms, and 1,000, seller's option, for the remainder of the year, at 10c. The first three months of 1869, say 500 or 1,000 per month, is offered at, 10½c, and sold at that figure yesterday, but to-day we were unable to hear of any one bidding over 10. There seems to be a general impression prevailing that prices will go still lower before there is a reaction, and nearly every dealer is working with this object in view.

REFINED.

The Refined market is in pretty near the same condition as that of the Crude market, and, compared with yesterday, prices have still further declined. We can report 1,000 bbls for the first half of November at 25¼; 500 last half at 25¾; 500 for last half of December at 25⅝; 500 each January to June at 28; and 400 bbls delivered on board boat, for a western market, at 23. The decline within the past few days has been without a precedent in the trade during the past year, and exceeded even the most sanguine expectations of those who have been predicting that it would come—it occurred sooner than they expected. The principal causes assigned, are that the season is pretty well advanced, the time of year having arrived when prices usually decline, but we presume that it was the stringency in the money market that brought it about so suddenly and unexpectedly.

Speakers in Parliament.

We extract the following feom a recent number of the Gentleman's Magazine, published in London: "The Times of Friday gave up no less than thirty-five of its columns to the parliamentary debates of the previous night, and not a single speaker afterward wrote to correct a syllable of the report. Yet the speakers themselves are frequently anything but perfect elocutionists. They speak sometimes with their backs to the gallery; they speak many of them in a low, slip-shod and hesitating manner. Lord Derby, Lord Cairns and Lord Granville, as a rule, speak distinctly enough. You may hear every syllable they may have to say; yet you must be apt with your pencil to take all you hear. But Lord Russell and Lord Grey hum and ha, hesitate and hang over a word or a phrase, talk loosely and inaudibly. Mr. Gladstone generally speaks apparently in a torrent and whirlwind of passion. Pale and haughty, he stands at the table and pours out a stream of thought and passion in long, sweeping sentences. His vehement spirit finds an apt echo in a clear and musical enunciation. Mr. Disraeli speaks in quieter tones; but every word is audible, and every sentence is perfect. Mr. Bright's masculine sense finds fitting expression in magnificent rhetoric. He has a powerful voice, and he uses it like a prima donna. He is, to my thinking, the most perfect and artistic speaker in the House of Commons. Sir Ronndell Palmer and Mr. Coleridge speak in an easy, flowing and graceful style; and as they always keep the House at attention, you can hear all they have to say. But Mr. Lowe is the terror of the gallery. He is one of the ablest and cleverest men in Parliament; but as a speaker he is one of the most annoying. He speaks very fast, very indistinctly and very irregularly. His articulation is chaotic. Sir Stafford Northcote has a fatal fault. He talks without stops of any description. His speeches are continuous streams of words. Lord Stanley is a bit of a bore; for though you may always reckon upon sound, manly sense, you must strain your ears and puzzle your wits to interpret, sentence by sentence, what he is saying. His articulation is terribly disconcerting. It is zig-zag and blurred. Mr. Stuart Mill has a weak, thin voice and a hesitating manner. Yet all these are men whose speeches on interesting occasions every paper thinks it a duty to give in the first person, and, as a rule, the speeches of these men are given with striking verbal accuracy. Very often they read much more effectively in the papers the next morning than they sounded in St. Stephen's the previous night.

Heating Cars.

A new method of heating passenger cars was tried on the Connecticut River Railroad on Wednesday. It is thus described by the New Haven Journal:

A bonnet is placed on the top of the car at each end, to catch the wind while the car is in motion, and the air rushes down a pipe in the corner inside, close to a stove which is made with a hot air jacket, and attached to the chamber formed by the heater and jacket surrounding it. On the floor of the car stands a closed box partly filled with water. The air, whether filled with dust or not, which enters the bonnet, rushes directly into the water box, where it is thoroughly washed, and passing into the heater, is forced in an absolute pure state into pipes that run near the floor, the whole length of the car, on each side and under the seats. At proper intervals these pipes are perforated with small holes, through which the heated and purified air escapes. The whole arrangement gave great satisfaction to all on the cars, and it is thought that a very great advantage has been gained to the traveling public by this invention.

The apparatus is as easily governed and regulated as the simplest stove, and is not at all cumbersome, but quite light and ornamental, and does not cost half as much as some other attempts at a car-heating apparatus. The warmth is distributed equally throughout the entire length of the car, and coming low down toward the floor will enable passengers to always keep their feet comfortably warm.

Expression in the Eyebrows.

The eyebrows are a part of the face comparatively but little noticed, though in disclosing the real sentiments of the mind scarcely any other features of the face can come into competition. In vain the most prudent female imposes silence on her tongue; in vain she tries to compose her face and eyes; a single movement of the eyebrows instantly discloses what is passing in her soul. Placed upon the skin, and attached to muscles which move them in every direction, the eyebrows are obedient, in consequence of their extreme mobility, to the slightest internal impulses. There majesty, pride, vanity, severity, kindness, the dull and gloomy passions, and the passions soft and gay, are alternately depicted. "The eyebrows alone," said Lavater, the prince of physiogomists, "often give the positive expression of the character." "Part of the soul," says Pliny the elder, "resides in the eyebrows, which move at the command of the will." LeBrun, in his treatise on the passions, says "that the eyebrows are the equivocal interpreters of the emotions of the heart, and of the affections of the soul."

THE French lunatic asylums contain over 30,000 patients, two-thirds of whom are believed to be perfectly sane, and confined only for various infamous reasons. Jules Favre has collected a number of facts in regard to the power of the Prefects to send any person to the lunatic asylum on the mere certificate of a police doctor. Among the most flagrant abuses is the custom to apply for a certificate of insanity against persons of whom their families want to get rid. A person once confined in a lunatic asylum in France is civilly dead; that is to say, he can no longer apply to the courts for protection. His only hope of relief is an application to the Minister of the Interior, and as long as such men as Pinard are at the head of that department, there is no hope of a change for the better. Favre's revelations in regard to the abuses and crimes perpetrated at the lunatic asylums of France are anxiously expected, and are certain to create a great sensation.

A WELL-KNOWN physician of Burlington, Vt., driving into town on Tuesday morning, was met by a friend, who hailed with the question if he had voted.

"Not yet," said the doctor; but I have been out all night after a voter. I got him, too."

"When will he vote?"

"Oh, about twenty-one years from now."

"Ah—I see. Not bad. Well, look after him, and see that he votes right."

"No fear. He can't go wrong with the name he's got. His father is a Democrat, but when I told him he had got a boy, and asked him what he would name him, he said: 'Ulysses Grant, by thunder.' So he'll do."

A LADY in Bangor, Maine, hung her hoop skirt on a nail in her chamber, and a member of her household, while exploring the premises, was so unfortunate as to get his head caught therein, and being unable to extricate himself, soon expired. The name of the victim was Thomas Cat.

Interesting Railway Items.

The new railway which is to connect Harrisburg and the Northern Central Railway with Washington is noiselessly advancing, and excavations have already been made on the East Branch of the Potomac for the approaches to the bridge on which it will cross into the city. This is known as Simon Cameron's railroad, and is to evade Baltimore by a half mile or more, carry passengers there for one dollar, and effectually establish a competitive line to the North.

The great sleeping car company, known as the Central Transportation Company, is building twenty-one new cars at Wilmington, Altoona, Philadelphia and Mansfield, wakened up by the enterprise of Pullman, the Northwest car man, whom they are now sueing for an infringement of patent. Before Pullman's time the sleeping cars were reduced to asylums for the free transportation of government fleas. He has aroused the old monotony to some feeble enterprise, and they are trying to do better for us, though their prices are still exorbitant—two dollars per bed and no half berths. They began in 1860 at fifty cents per berth. The present company has a capital of four millions of dollars.

The municipality of Washington is in hot water with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The former insists upon moving the depot out of town, and clogging the tracks with streets, but the Postmaster General retorts that at the first movement of Mayor Bowen he will prosecute for a penal offense under the postal laws. There is a set of men here who use every opportunity to worry money out of President Garrett, and take advantage of the semi-rebel politics of the State of Maryland to menace her with an infraction of her sovereignty to charter railways. The Baltimore and Ohio road is prosperous by the personal energy of its President. It is doing its work faithfully and liberally, making improvements constantly, as its connections accord them, and when you hear in Cincinnati of a grand new chartered air-line from Washington to any point whatsoever, make up your mind that some sharpers here are intriguing to black-mail the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, which is as much entitled to the exclusive privileges of its charter in Maryland as any road in Ohio. A railroad which has equipped and put to sea eight steamers flying the American flag, has done its part in the national destinies.—Wash. Letter.

The German Arctic Expedition.

The Germania, with the German Arctic Expedition on board, has recently cast anchor before Bremen. Although prevented by solid masses of ice from approaching Greenland or Gillisland, both of which they subsequently tried, the expedition boasts of having penetrated to the highest degree of northern latitude ever reached by ship. They first endeavored to effect a landing on the Eastern shore of Greenland. Between July 24 and August 10 three attempts were made to reach the coast, clearly visible in the distance, but in vain. The first at 75½ ddg. N. lat. and 12 deg. W. long.; the second at 74½ deg. N. lat. and 14 deg. W. long.; the third at 73 deg. 23 min. N. lat, when they actually got up as far as 17½ deg. W. long. But even in this last instance, which seemed to promise so well, further progress was eventually rendered impracticable by an ice field forty feet thick. As the reader will perceive, though at each successive attempt they were driven further from the north, yet they continued making way to the west, although, alas! not far enough. Then, giving it up as a bad job, and making for Spitzbergen, they entered Henlopen Strait, sighted Gillisland from Thumb Point, but, by their old enemy, the ice, they were obliged to turn back at Cape Torrell. It was while sailing north of Spitzbergen that they made the highest latitude ever attained, arriving at 81 deg. 5 min. when at 16 deg. longitude. The expedition, which found the sea blocked up even more completely than is ordinarily the case, is said to have rectified the charts in many points and made other observations, on which a detailed report will be published. There is a prospect of its being repeated next year. Many ship owners and scientific men are taking an earnest interest in the frigid project. It is not impossible that voluntary contributions sufficient to cover the moderate expense incurred in these German voyages will be forthcoming again.

AT A public dinner in Edinburgh, Professor Blackie told the following story, which somebody else also told some years ago: "A boy at a Presbyterian examination was asked, 'What is the meaning of regeneration?' 'Oh, to be born again,' he replied. 'Quite right, Tommy; you're a very good boy. Would you not like to be born again?' Tommy gave no reply; but on being pressed for an answer, at last said, 'No.' 'Why, Tommy?' Tommy replied, 'For fear I might be born a lassie.'"

FOR SALE--REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE.

A FARM OF 30 ACRES, on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, 27 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa. The improvements are a fine two-story brick house, with ten large rooms and hall. A large frame bank barn, with No. 1 stabling, and all other outbuildings in complete order. One of the best of orchards, of all kinds of fruit. The soil is rich new bottom. This property adjoins the village of Buena Vista, and has the advantage of churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., and will be sold at the low price of $15,000. The improvements alone are worth at least all that is asked for the property, to say nothing about the land, which is worth for garden purposes at least $10,000. For full particulars call at my office, or WILLIAM A. BELL, Esq., on the premises.

ALSO, A FARM OF 40 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, about 18 miles from the city. The improvements are a new stone dwelling, with eight rooms; a good barn and other outbuildings. This property is offered at a very low price. Call and secure yourself a good bargain.

ALSO, A FARM OF 120 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 17½ miles from the city, on the Connellsville Railroad, opposite Elrod's Station, within 20 minutes' walk of the Station. The improvements are a frame house containing four rooms and kitchen, with a good cellar underneath; very good barn and other outbuildings. A No. 1 orchard, containing about 200 fruit bearing trees, all in good condition. 90 acres cleared land, the residue in good timber, underlaid with 23 acres of coal.

ALSO, A TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE adjoining the Borough of Elizabeth, Allegheny county, Pa., containing 4 rooms and kitchen. Lot 60 feet front by 126 back to an alley. A good stable, wash house, bake-oven and other outbuildings. I am authorized to sell it at the low price of $1,800, on good terms.

ALSO, In the Borough of Elizabeth, a good two-story BRICK HOUSE, containing 4 rooms. Lot 120 feet square. Will be sold at the exceedingly low price of $2,500, on easy terms.

ALSO, My Farm, known by the name of "Willow Banks," situated on the Connellsville Railroad, 17 miles from the city, containing 79 ACRES, all in good condition. The improvements are a No 1 brick house, two stories high, newly painted, containing six rooms, two halls running full length of the house. The house is situated on a beautiful knoll, is surrounded by fruit trees, shrubbery, vines and flowers, with a graded avenue running to the Yough. River. Also, a large frame bank barn, smoke house, wash house, coal house, bake-oven and other outbuildings, and a never-failing well of water. Two large orchards, containing from six to seven hundred fruit trees, nearly all in good bearing condition. This farm abounds in small fruits, viz: Currants, raspberries, gooseberries, and a fine large strawberry patch, which, in connexion with the richness of the soil, and nearness to the city, makes it very desirable for gardening purposes. Very convenient to schools, churches, stores and blacksmith shop.

ALSO, A FARM OF 158 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 31 miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville Railroad, at Suter Station. The improvements are a common log house, a good frame barn, with stabling for ten horses; a corn crib and wagon shed; good orchard of fruit trees; fencing very good. 120 acres cleared, the residue in heavy timber land. This farm is valuable—first, for its excellent soil; secondly, its timber; and thirdly, it contains more limestone than any other farm in Pennsylvania, all accessible. The lower vein of limestone is 40 feet thick; several other veins ranging from 3½ to 6 ft. in thickness, lie under the whole farm. For particulars enquire of ELI SUTER, Esq., at Suter Station, or at my office.

ALSO, 174 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 50 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; one hundred and twenty acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered, and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm.

ALSO, A beautifully situated tract of 60 ACRES of valuable land, under good fencing, situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a township road, 7 measured miles from the Market House, Allegheny City. This tract is well adapted for a garden or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats, for persons doing business in the city.

ALSO, The best farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., 4 miles from Western Penna. R. R. at Livermore Station, containing 300 ACRES—225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics; a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary outbuildings, all in good order; 5 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 4 feet vein of coal (now open,) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of spring and never-failing water. Taken all together—houses, fencing, soil, nice lying surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.,—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

ALSO, FARM AND MILLS. A small tract of 60 ACRES of very valuable land in Derry township Westmoreland county, Pa.; well fenced and in a high state of cultivation, with new frame dwelling, and other outbuildings; a new grist and saw mill complete, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the needed fixtures, in good order, and a young orchard of choice fruits; lane is all underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened and worked, at the back of the mill, and limestone in abundance. Call soon and secure a good bargain.

ALSO, FARM OF 160 ACRES, situated immediately upon the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Blairsville Intersection, 54 miles east of the city. The improvements are a two-story stone house of 8 rooms, a No. 1 barn, 45 by 65 feet, the best of stabling and other outbuildings. The land lies well, is well fenced, is in good farming order, and will be sold very cheap if applied for soon.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Change of Carriers.

Mr. Barckley, the gentleman who delivers the GAZETTE on the east side of Federal street, Allegheny, has sold out his route to Mr. William Erb, who will collect from the first inst. Subscribers who may fail to receive their papers under the new management should promptly leave word at our counting room, so that the matter may be remedied.

Hon. G. A. Grow is in the city.

Dull.—Police news has been exceedingly dull since the election.

The Philadelphia delegation of politicians who have been in the city a few days, left for home yesterday.

Westminister.—We are indebted to W. A. Gildenfenny for the October number of the Westminister Review.

Third street, from Smithfield to Ross street, is in a rather bad condition. The "Apostles" might spend a few hours upon it very profitably.

A "Squall."—This portion of the "moral heritage" was visited by a regular "north easter" yesterday, which was accompanied by quite a "squall."

Merchants declare that rents must come down next spring, as they cannot afford to pay the extravagant rates which are exacted in some quarters.

Allegheny Councils.—A regular meeting of Allegheny Councils will be held this evening at seven o'clock. Members are requested to be prompt in attendance.

The rain of Tuesday evening brought with it very cold weather. Yesterday a heavy wind prevailed, and towards night the mercury fell to the freezing point.

Progressing.—The work on the Monongahela wharf, between Smithfield and Grant streets, is progressing rapidly. It will be completed before freezing weather commences if possible.

Vagrancy.—Mrs. Mary Donahue was arrested yesterday on a charge of vagrancy and taken to the lock-up, where she remained last night. The unfortunate woman had with her a bright littie child only eleven months old. She will probably be sent to the city farm.

The sale of the Republic, we believe, has been accomplished, and the new management will be announced within a short time. It is proposed to retain the name, but to convert the paper from a morning journal to an evening one. The quarto form will, in all probability, be adopted, and the politics remain Democratic.

New Train.—The Connellsville Railroad Company have been compelled to add another train to their list of Freights owing to the heavy Coal and Coke traffic. The new Train will run between Brinton Station and Connellsville, and will for the present make daily trips, until the preparation of a new schedule.

Fair for a Charitable Purpose.—We are informed that the lady members of most, if not all, the Protestant churches in this city are making arrangements for holding a Fair, the proceeds of which will be donated towards procuring a suitable "Home" for unfortunate females. No more charitable or humane undertaking could engage the time and attention of philanthropic, Christian women.

An Insane Woman, who says her name is Mary Cosgrove, was arrested on First street yesterday evening and taken to the lockup. The unfortunate creature, it appears, came to the city about six months ago and has since then been employed as a maid of all work by a family residing on First street, and it is stated never exhibited any symptoms of insanity until yesterday. She will probably be sent to Dixmont.

Fair and Festival.—The ladies of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Sixth street, Rev. Mr. Squires, pastor, are making arrangements for the holding of a grand Fair and Festival on the 24th and 25th inst. The proceeds will be applied to the payment of a debt due on the church building, and we trust that the affair will prove as profitable as it certainly will be pleasant and enjoyable. A sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner will probably be embraced in the programme.

False Pretense.

C. Snyder made information before Justice Heisel, of East Birmingham yesterday, charging Nimrod Felrer with obtaining money by false pretense. He alleges that the accused put up a picture to be raffled for, and that his, the prosecutor's wife, took a chance in the same, and when the raffle was made won the picture. The defendant instead of delivering it to her, he alleges, sold it and appropriated the money to his own use. The accused was arrested and taken to the Justice's office, when the matter was settled by the payment of the money and costs by the accused.

Slightly Injured.

An accident occurred at the Union Depot yesterday, by which Michael Sullivan was slightly injured, and narrowly escaped serions injury. Sullivan who is a switch tender, was standing near one of the switches, when a Silver Palace Sleeping car was being transferred from the train on the Fort Wayne road to the Cincinnati Express. The car was moving at a rapid rate and the switch tender failing to get out of the way in time, was struck and knocked down. Fortunately he fell outside of the track, and consequently escaped serious injury. His arms were considerably lacerated, and his head somewhat bruised. Dr. Hamilton attended to his injuries.

Painful Accident.

An accident of a very painful nature occurred at Zug's rolling mill, Tuesday morning. The puddler at furnace No. 22, George Wetzell by name, stood at his furnace, with one end of the long puddling iron in the fire and his chin resting on the other end. While he was in this position some bricks fell from the furnace stack, and striking the end of the puddling iron, forced the other end violently through the chin of the unfortunate man, lacerating his throat, jaw and tongue very badly, and knocking out several of his teeth. The injured man received immediate assistance, and after his wounds had been attended to, he was removed to his home in Ailegheny.

Cars Thrown Off a Trestle — Twelve Horses Killed.

On Wednesday morning, about four o'clock, an accident occurred on the Panhandle Railroad, at the Saw Mill Run trestle work, which resulted in killing twelve valuable horses, demolishing one car and damaging two others. It seems that when freight train No. 23 approached the place named, one of the cars jumped the track, and the train could not be stopped until the car had ran upon the trestle, and was thrown over the side, a distance of thirty feet. In its fall it dragged two other cotton cars with it. The first one that went over contained sixteen horses, twelve of which were killed, the other four escaping unharmed. The animals belonged to Mr. J. H. Dohlman, of New York. Fortunately, no person was at all injured. The trestle was slightly damaged, but not to any serious extent. All damage was promptly repaired, and the track cleared, so that the trains made Eastern connections.

THE COUNTY CHRISTIAN CONVENTION.

Second Day's Proceedings.

MORNING SESSION.

After devotional exercises held in the Lecture Room of the Church, the Convention re-assembled in the main auditorium at ten o'clock, and was called to order by President Wilson.

The exercises were opened by singing the hymn commencing,

"Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove."

The President then announced that the discussion of the topic, "What are the Christian's opportunities to do good, at home, in the church, and as a member of society?" was now in order, and called upon Rev. S. F. Scovel to open the discussion.

Mr. Scovel, in opening the discussion, read portions of the 4th and 15th chapters of St. John, and the 9th chapter of Acts, and said: Every Christian should inquire, as did Paul, "Lord, what would'st thou have me to do?" He then proceeded to consider some of the opportunities which Christians have for doing good, and among those referred to the power of example and influence, by the use of means which God has given, and co-working with established institutions. He thought, however, that the topic had particular reference to the opportunities enjoyed by Christians to do good by personal efforts, in making appeals both to fellow Christians and non-professors, and he argued that such opportunities were afforded to Christians in all conditions of life. In conclusion he recited two beautiful poems, entitled "Nothing to Do?" and "Use Me, O God."

The congregation then sang two stanzas of the hymn commencing, "A charge to keep I have."

Mr. McClintock, from the Business Committee, stated that Dr. Beatty, who was appointed on the Committee, was not present. On motion, Rev. J. B. Hanna was appointed in his stead.

On motion, Rev. Joseph King was appointed to frame a resolution expressive of the sense of the Convention on the topic under discussion.

The discussion was then resumed.

W. A. Bacon, City Missionary of Detroit, said Mr. Scovel had struck the key-note of the topic when he stated that the great opportunity for doing good was Christian sympathy. He related some thrilling incidents coming under his own observation, and concluded by urging every Christian to exercise this sympathy.

Mr. Burnell, of Milwaukee, concurred in the opinions of the previous speaker in regard to the power of christian sympathy, and illustrated his position by relating a conversation he had with a mechanic in Des Moines, Iowa.

Rev. Mr. McMillan, of Lawrence county, illustrated some of the opportunities for doing good. He found opportunities while walking along the streets, by visiting, and while on errands.

The congregation then joined in singing the hymn entitled "Battling for the Lord."

Dr. Jacobus, in resuming the discussion, said that if any one would read the first chapter of Acts, he would see some of the opportunities which Christians have for doing good. Among the lessons there taught were the opportunities embraced by Paul, the manner of the early training of Timothy, and the influences exerted by Lydia.

Rev. Mr. M'Millan had learned an opportunity of doing good while returning home from Illinois. He was riding in the cars with some delegates returning from the Bloomington Convention, when one of the delegates quoted in a loud voice the passage of scripture, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life," and then in a few words spoke of the glorious news which the passage conveyed. He thought this a grand opportunity of doing good.

Rev. Mr. Ferris thought that ministers had many opportunities afforded them of doing good while traveling on railroads and steamboats, which he urged them to embrace on all occasions.

Rev. Mr. Dickerson thought every man should do good after his own manner, the Holy Spirit being his guide. There could be no uniform plan for doing good. The great want was more zeal and more faith. He concluded by urging more boldness on the part of Christians in embracing opportunities.

The Convention then sang one verse of the hymn commencing—

"Shall we gather at the river."

Mr. McClintock, from the Business Committee, submitted a new rule of order, and the programme of exercises for the afternoon session.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention re-assembled at two o'clock, President Wilson in the chair.

The hymn commencing

"Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers,"

was then sung, followed with prayer by Dr. Happer. The Convention united in singing the third selection of hyms, after which the topic for discussion was taken up, "How can the Christian activities of the entire membership of any particular Church be best organized and developed." Rev. Dr. M'Millan in opening the discussion said that there was a distinct work for every church member to do. Laborers for Christ are needed in every department of christian enterprise, and if any one endeavored to find out his peculiar work, by earnest prayer and an obedient spirit the way would soon become clear. Pastors should enforce upon the people their duty in this matter, and by this means christian activity would be organized and christian work be prospered.

Dr. Marshall thought the activities of the christian life were the spiritual activities of faith, love and humility. The members of the church should be made to feel, that each had a special work to do in the vinyeard of the Lord.

Rev. W. T. Beatty, considered the Baptism of the Holy Spirit the most important requisite in the matter, and it could only be obtained by prayer and consecration.

Mr. K. A. Burnell, of Milwaukee, said there was an urgent necessity for system in all Christian effort, and a mingling of the human with the Divine.

Mr. Bacon, of Detroit, thought people should be made to feel that they were laboring in the cause of Christ, and the Church would then be made zealous, and all her activities be developed.

Mr. J. F. Slagle thought that in the selection of leaders in the Church, the Sabbath School, and all Christian enterprises, those alone should be chosen who evince in their lives and characters in a marked degree the spirit of their Divine Master.

Rev. S. F. Scovel said the prayer meetings should be important elements in all Church services. The Sabbath School was also another important matter to be attended to, and should be made as attractive as possible. Every effort should be made to unite the church as one common family for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom. He recommended "Helping Hand Societies" and other similar organizations for this purpose.

The audience now united in singing the 7th hymn, commencing,

"He leadeth me. Oh, blessed thought!
Oh, words with heavenly comfort fraught"

Mr. Bacon resumed the discussion, and said that there was a wide field for Christian activity in reaching the people who were only moral, and who seemed not to need any religious training. More strenuous efforts should be put forth in this direction, which would amply repay the toiler.

Rev. B. W. Chidlaw said the command was, "Go work in my vineyard," and in complying with that command the Gospel should be taught so as to show men its sympathy with men in all conditions of life. If this was taught many more would be brought to embrace its provisions. The idea of membership in the Church should be the soldier's idea of duty, but loving duty. If the pastor could impress his members with this idea, all would be earnest in the cause, and not only willing but anxious to be employed.

Rev. King now offered the following resolution as a summary of the discussion on the morning topic:

WHEREAS, We are each one in a certain sense our brother's keeper, God will hold us responsible not only for being good, but for doing good. "Go work in my vineyard," is the command of our Master, "as you have opportunity, do good to all." Therefore, in view of the timely and pertinent remarks which this morning's discussion has called forth

Resolved, That as Christians and members of society, we shonld cherish in our hearts a deep sense of our personal responsibilities to God, and should improve all our opportunities to promote the cause of Christ by the impulse of a holy example, by giving of our means and personal efforts for the salvation of souls, ever feeling the promptings of the Holy Spirit in Christian labor.

Mr. Oliver McClintock moved that Rev. Wm. M. Young be appointed to draft a resolution upon the discussion of the afternoon. Carried.

The discussion was then resumed.

Mr. Young, of Illinois, spoke briefly on the necessity of earnest prayer.

Mr. J. F. Keeler thought that "where these's a will there's a way," and after a feeling of love for the work was inspired in the heart there would be no difficulty.

Mr. W. S. Taylor thought that a more perfect social intercourse among church members would lead to a more united effort in the cause.

Brief remarks were also made by Rev. Dr. Pressly, Rev. W. M. Young, Rev. J. H. Stuckenbaugh, Rev. Elliott and Mr. Andrews.

Mr. H. K. Porter moved an adjournment, which, upon being put, was lost.

The discussion was then resumed and remarks made by Revs. Gillett and Dickerson.

The audience joined in singing the 25th selection, which was followed by remarks from Mr. Clark, Dr. Hastings and Dr. Marshall.

The Question Box was then opened and a number of questions relating to christian work read and answered by delegates.

The Convention then adjourned, with prayer by Mr. Burnell.

ENENING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at 7½ o'clock by President Wilson.

During the interval between the sessions some additions had been made to the decorations of the Church, which rendered its appearance very attractive. Spanning the recess at the rear of the pulpit an arch had been erected bordered with evergreens and supporting pendant from its center a large evergreen cross, which was encircled with a beautiful wreath of flowers. The arch bore the inscription, "members in one."

The audience was one of the largest ever assembled in the Church, every seat in the auditorium and galleries being filled, together with the aisles and part of the vestibule on the second floor.

The exercises commenced by singing the "Coronation" hymn:

"All hail the power of Jesus name,
Let angels prostrate fall."

Rev. Jonathan Edwards, President of Washington College, led the meeting in prayer, after which the chairman stated the topic for discussion: "Devotional meetings in the church; cottage prayer meetings; open air meetings."

Mr. K. A. Burnell, of Milwaukee, opened the discussion on open air meetings by giving an account of the manner in which the Young Men's Association at that place conducted their meetings. They had kept the meeting up for over a year every Sabbath, sometimes, in inclement weather, holding them in depots and other public buildings, which were placed at their disposal, and by these means were enabled to continue their meetings without interruption. The speaker illustrated his subject by several pertinent anecdotes. He closed his remarks by a prayer in behalf of the "Home for Destitute Women" in this city.

The audience then joined in singing a stanza of the 6th hymn:

"Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly dove,
With all thy quickening power."

The discussion was then continued by Mr. Arthur Bell, a member of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, who gave an interesting account of the commencement of the open air meetings under the auspices of the Association. These meetings were first organized after the Convention in Detroit, from which they received their impulse. They had continued from that time on every possible occasion, and had thus far been productive of much good. The speaker also gave an account of the manner in which the exercises at these meetings were conducted, and related a number of interesting reminiscences of the work.

W. A. Bacon, City Missionary of Detroit, stated that it was about fourteen years ago since open air meetings were held in England, and had proved remarkably successful. He also gave descriptions of the qualifications necessary for an out door preacher, the principal of which were an earnest zeal and love for the work, and common sense and prudence. The work in Michigan, in which the speaker was a participant, was dwelt upon for a few minutes, and gave an account of the history of one family which had fallen under the influence of christianity, and from a condition of the most abject poverty had been raised to one of affluence and respectability. Through the influence of open air religious meetings in Detroit, twenty-eight families had been brought into the church in one year, and a large number of children brought under religious instruction in the Sunday School.

Major Frew said that while church going people were sitting in their comfortable churches on next Sabbath morning at least half of the population of the city would be without the sound of the gospel trumpet. The duty of christians in view of this fact was one which should engage their earnest attention. The open air meetings furnished a remedy for this great evil. The speaker then referred to the example of Wesley as a proof of the practical influence of these open air meetings, and closed with an earnest appeal in urging upon our christians their duty in sustaining these meetings. Two stanzas of the hymn was then sung, commencing;

"Am I a soldier of the Cross,
A follower of the Lamb?"

Tho discussion on the topic of "Cottage Prayer Meetings" was next taken up. Mr. F. H. Rabe, in opening the discussion, remarked that the pleasantest exercises in which the christian worker could engage, were those of the Cottage Prayer Meetings. He had been engaged in this work for some time and considered it the most delightful of his experience. He gave a number of interesting illustrations of the work throughout the city, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, and urged a more devoted consecration upon all christians.

Rev. F. A. Noble next led the Convention in prayer.

Rev. S. C. Ferris believed the cottage prayer meetings to be the most powerful means in the hands of christian workers to bring the multitudes who are out of the church under christian influences. They had also another influence on those engaged in them by reviving religion in their own hearts, and making their hearts warm in the service of the Master. There were connected with the meeting, from the diffidence of persons to engage in them, but in view of the great importance of the work no christian could be absolved from the consequences of neglecting this or any other agency to bring about the salvation of souls.

The audience united in singing the 25th selection, commencing

"Show me thy way, oh Lord,
Thy paths, oh teach thou me."

The discussion on the topic of Devotional Meetings at the Church was next taken up.

Dr. Jonathan Edwards, President of the Washington and Jefferson College, in discussing this topic, took the ground that the recognition of the Church as a common Priesthood, and the power of prayer, formed the great underlying principles of devotion in all the meetings of the Church, and he argued that a proper sense of these great principles would revive the Church, make all her services a pleasure and a delight, and increase her influence and power for the salvation of men.

The reverend gentleman dwelt at some length on this idea, illustrating his remarks by anecdotes, historical references and reminiscences of his own experience as a Christian minister.

Mr. Vincent made a very forcible and eloquent address of about fifteen minutes in length, in which he took the ground that from open air meetings and cottage prayer meetings and similar agencies, the devotional spirit of the church was in a great measure aroused and sustained, and all the latent powers of the christian brought out and fully developed. In the course of his remarks he referred to a few of the great religious movements which had reformed the world, showing that some of the principal agencies which gave the impulse to these great reform were to be found in meeting similar to these under discussion eloquent allusions were made to Rev. Newman Hall, C. H. Spurgeon and a number of other distinguished workers, who were carrying forward the cause by means of these agencies in England. The speaker concluded his remarks by fervently invoking the divine blessing upon the Young Men's Chrislian Associations in America in all their interests and labors.

At the close Rev. B. W. Chidlaw, of Cincinnati, led the Convention in prayer, after which the audience was dismissed.

The following is the order of exercises for to-day: Prayer meeting at 9 A. M., in the lecture room of the church, led by B. W. Chidlaw, of Cincinnati; adjournment to the auditorium at 9½ o'clock, for discussion of the topic: The organization and work of City Mission. How shall we reach the poor, the degraded, and all who do not attend to public worship?

The discussion will be opened by Revs. M. B. Pugh and Alfred Caldwell, City Missionaries.

The question drawer will be opened at half-past eleven, and the Convention adjourn at a quarter to twelve o'clock, to attend the Union Noonday Prayer Meeting in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 53 Fifth Avenue.

Important Decisions.

The following important opinions delivered by John M. Purviance Register in Bankruptcy for the Twenty-third Congressional District, in the case of Joseph Barnett, who filed a petition in Bankruptcy on the 3rd day of March, 1868, was confirmed in the U. S. Court yesterday:

OPINION.

The question upon which the opinion of the Register is desired, is whether the crop raised by the Bankrupt in the year 1868, after the filing of his petition in Bankruptcy passes as assets to the assignee for the use of the creditors of said Bankrupt.

The petition in Bankruptcy in this case, was filed on the 3rd dav of March 1868, by the petitioner The said Barnett, was adjudged a Bankrupt on the 8th day of April following. Assignment of his assets, was duly made on the 15th day of May, 1868, to the assignee chosen by the greater part in number and value of the creditors who have proved their debts, said Bankrupt has not been discharged. The Fourteenth Section of the Bankrupt Act, providing inter alia for the argument of Bankrupt's effects and estate, is specific in its terms, in this, that it provides for the assignment and conveyance to the assignee of all the estate, real and personal, of the bankrupt, of which he was possessed, or in which he was interested, or entitled to have on the day of the date of filing his petition in bankruptcy, and declares that "such arrangement shall relate back to the commencement of said proceedings in bankruptcy." The assignment therefore does not relate to or take effect upon after acquired property, earned by labor as in this case. The whole proceedings as provided for by the law and as indicated in the forms prescribed, seem to contemplate the true condition of the bankrupt, as to his means and liabilities, at the time of the commencement of the proceedings in bankruptcy. Therefore, after acquired property, earned by labor or otherwise, pending proceedings in bankruptcy, and before final discharge, forms no part of the assets which under the bankrupt law passed by assignment to the assignee for the use of the creditor.

Taking the facts to be as stated in the paper hereto attached, "that after the petition in bankruptcy was filed that Joseph Burnett, the bankrupt, put in a spring crop, consisting of corn, oats, buckwheat and potatoes," the register is of opinion that the said grain raised by the bankrupt after the filing of his petition does not pass to the assignee as assetts for the use of the creditor.

The decisions were submitted to the Court yesterday and confirmed.

Amusements.

OPERA.—There was a fair audience at the Opera House last night, notwithstanding the sudden change in the weather. To-night Miss Helen Western will appear as Cynthia, in the "Flowers of the Forest." The piece is an excellent one of its character, and it will doubtless be rendered in a satisfactory manner. The entertainment will conclude with the laughable farce of the "Lottery Ticket."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Academy of Music was filled last night with a fashionable audience to witness the entertainment by the Hanlon Brothers and their truly wonderful company. The versatility of the performance is a commendable feature in their exhibitions. The performance of Pfau on the trapeze is one of the wonders of the age, and we will not attempt a description of the daring manner in which he leaps from one bar to another while flying through the air. The performance of the juveniles is most excellent, and forms one of the principal features of the "show," which should be seen to be appreciated.

MASONIC HALL.—The celebrated Morris Brother's Minstrels, from Boston, are holding forth to immense audiences at Masonic Hall. The troupe is one of the best now traveling in every respect, and has no superior in any particular. They will remain this week.

FRANKLIN HALL.—The Museum continues to attract hundreds of persons to Franklin Hall. The collection of natural and artificial curiosities there to be seen is truly wonderful. The Museum is open day and evening.

Real Estate Transfers.

MORTGAGES.

Same day eight mortgages were filed.

Lutheran General Council.

The General Council of the American Lutheran Church will commence its annual session this morning at half-past nine o'clock in the First Lutheran Church, Seventh avenue. The body is the highest judicatory in the church, and is composed of English, German, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish Synods from Canada to Texas. The sessions are open to all, and will continue from half-past nine to twelve A. M., and half-past two to five P. M. Rev. J. A. Seiss, D. D., of Philadelphia, an able and eloquent pulpit orator, will preach the opening discourse this evening in the church in which the Council holds its sittings.

THE COURTS.

Supreme Court.

WEDNESDAY, November 11.—Court met at ten o'clock, A. M., Present, Chief Justice Thompson and Justices Read and Agnew.

John G. Brant, of Pittsburgh, on motion of Geo. Shiras, Esq., was duly admitted and qualified to practice in this Court.

Howell et. al; Trustees, vs. Broad Top Coal and Iron Co., et. al; bill in equity. On motion of John Scott, Esq., solicitor for complainants, and on affidavit filed, special order made for service of process on defendants and for appearance, publications, etc.

Court adjourned until Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

U. S. Circuit Court—Judge McCandless.

Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning, Judge McCandless on the bench. The following business was transacted:

In the case of Josiah B. Evans vs. the city of Pittsburgh, the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,498 40.

Winslow L. Souther vs. same. Virdict for plaintiff in the sum of $961 20.

George L. Ashmead vs. same. Verdict for plaintiff for $953 35.

George L. Ashmead vs. county of Allegheny. Defendant confessed judgment, the amount to be ascertained by the clerk.

The next case taken up was that of Louis Morris and Louisa his wife vs. John Scott. This was an action in trespass to recover damages sustained by the sale of property which belonged to plaintiff's wife. The case is still on trial.

The following cases were continued: C. Moran vs. the City of Pittsburgh; Lucius C. Jones, Assignee of A. M'Connell, vs. Adam T. Black, D. F. Diffenbacher and others.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

On the opening of the Court yesterday morning the case of J. H. Page vs. J. Heath garnishee of E. Heath was taken up. This was an execution attachment on a judgment. It was alleged that Elijah Heath was indebted to the plaintiff, and to other creditors, and for the purpose of evading payment made an assignment of property to the amount of about fourteen thousand dollars to his son, the defendant. It was further alleged that an effort was made to secure the amount, but that the elder Heath left the country. The present action is brought to recover about $7,000.

Following is the trial list for to-day

20. Kennedy & Bro. vs. Germania Gross Co.

33. Herron vs. Patterson, Neehous and Pharo.

39. Sorg vs. The First German Evangelical Church, Birmingham.

40. Sorg vs. The First German Evangelical Church, East Birmingham.

45. Ardesco Oil Co. vs. Richardson and Tack.

50. McElroy, Dickson & Company vs. Knap.

68. J. W. Cochran & Co., vs. owners of "S. B. Neville."

74. McAninch vs. Gardner & Patterson.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning, when the case of the Citizens Passenger Railway Company vs. the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company was taken up. This was an action to recover for damages sustained by the plaintiffs. In the month of March, 1867, while one of the railway cars was passing the crossing on Penn street, a train belonging to the defendants backed out of the freight yard, and striking the street car damaged it to a considerable extent. The action is brought to recover the amount of damage sustained. The jury found for the plaintiffs in the sum of $200.

Court then adjourned, and jury trials were suspended until Monday of next week.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, when the Sewickley riot case, reported on trial yesterday, was resumed. The prosecution closed their testimony, and the case was opened on the part of the defendants by Mr. White. The case is still on trial.

NEW BRIGHTON.

Dedication of a Good Templar's Temple.

[Correspondence to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, Nov. 11, 1868.

The Good Templars of this place, with others friendly to the cause of temperance, convened in their new, spacious and beautiful hall on Broadway at seven o'clock yesterday evening for the purpose of dedicating it to the use of their order.

Order of the Exercises—1. Singing a dedicatory ode. 2. Bible lesson. 3. Dedicatory prayer. 4. Opening address by S. F. Crowther, pastor of First Methodist Church. 5. Address by J. Mills, pastor of the North Episcopal church. 6. Singing an ode. 7. Address of Prof. Fields, Principal of Public Schools. 8. Address of E. H. Alexander, Worthy Chief Templar of this lodge. 9. Singing a closing ode. 10. Benediction.

We are glad that this band of friends of humanity have secured such a pleasant place to hold their meetings. May they make good use of it and do a good work in the community.

The temperance reform is a great work, a worthy work, a work in which every lover of humanity should engage. The future prosperity and happiness of our country depends largely upon the success of this worthy enterprise.

The evening passed very pleasantly, and all returned to their homes, feeling that they had been profitably employed. C.

Great Sale of Paintings.—This morning at ten o'clock, on second floor of McIlwain's Auction Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, will be sold the magnificent collection of oil paintings advertised in our columns. They are all valuable works, of great artistic merit, by foreign and native artists; such as will worthily adorn the homes of cultivated taste. This opportunity should not be omitted by any desirous to enjoy the true, the pure, and the beautiful in life and nature. The paintings and frames will be sold together, and sale of the whole collection positive. Sales will be continued this evening at 7½ o'clock, but none should neglect the opening sale this morning.

House and Lot on Federal Street, Allegheny, at Auction.—A very desirable property is advertised for sale to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock. The house and lot No. 305 Federal street is indeed a very desirable residence, and is to be sold only on account of the owner's removal from the city. There are seven rooms, all grained in the best manner and fitted up with due regard to comfort and appearances. See advertisement by A. Leggate, Auctioneer.

Dry Goods, Clothing, Cloaks, &c., at Assignee Sale.—This morning at ten o'clock at the Masonic Hall Auction House, 65 and 57 Fifth street, will be sold without reserve a large assortment of dry goods, trimmings, cloaks, sacques, circulars, shawls, umbrellas, notions, hardware, blankets, shirts and drawers, cloths, cassimeres, cloaks and clothing, and other goods belonging to the stock of a country store. See advertisement of H. B. Smithson & Co., Auctioneers.

Throat Diseases.—"We would call attention to 'Brown's Bronchial Troches.' We have found them efficacious in allaying Irritation in the Throat and Bronchia, and would commend them to the attention of Public Speakers and others troubled with affections of the Throat. They are also an excellent remedy for Hoarseness resulting from cold."—Congregationalist, Boston.

Asthma—Strong Evidence.—Such names as Dr. O. W. Holmes, Washington Irving and Ex-President Van Buren have borne testimony to the efficacy of Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy, which is for sale by druggists. TTST

Fleming's Ladies' Fur House.

It is with pleasure that we recommend to our numerous readers the extensive and popular hat, cap and ladies' fur house of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, as a place eminently worthy of patronage. The system of large sales and small profits has been rigidly carried out by this house, and the legitimate result therefore is an immense trade which keeps all hands about it as busy as can be, even at times when contemporary establishments mourn for a single customer. That Fleming's emporium carries at all times the largest and most varied stock of hats, caps and ladies' furs is conceded by everybody, and it is an equally unanimous verdict that purchasers by directing their patronage thither, save from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. on all that they buy. It will pay to visit this great house if it be even to see the prevailing styles in beautiful boas, Eugenias, berthas and patent muffs, all made of the primest Hudson Bay, Sable, Mink Sable, Siberian Squirrel, German Fitch, Water Mink, etc. Then the full and complete lines of children's and misses' furs will prove very attractive, being the largest and most finely assorted ever offered in this neighborhood. In order to test the superior advantages of this house over all others, it would be well for the purchaser to visit all the fur houses of the city, carefully examine the goods, inquire the prices, and then visit Fleming's and compare notes as to styles, qualities and figures at which sold. Mr. Fleming warrants all goods, and has never been known to permit any of his salesmen to deviate from the imperative rule of making no false representation to customers to accomplish a sale.

A busy man is a locomotive, and life a track. Every night he drives into "the house," and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes switching off in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use PLANTATION BITTERS, which are the ne plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. TH.S.T'F.
